1. Public Relations: Strategies and Tactics (11th edition) by D. L Wilcox and G. T. Cameron
2. Selected articles in modules in Canvas

COURSE DESCRIPTION: The nature and role of public relations in a democratic society, activities of public relations professionals, major influences that affect organizational behavior, and ethics and professional development of practitioners in the private and public sectors. Emphasizes management functions and developing effective public relations strategies.

PREREQUISITE KNOWLEDGE AND SKILLS: Sophomore standing

COURSE GOALS AND/OR OBJECTIVES:

Principles of Public Relations serves as an introductory course for those pursuing a major in public relations at UF. It offers an overview of public relations, including the origins and evolution of the field and covers concepts, strategies and tactics used by business, government, political and non-profit organizations. And, in light of the fast-changing nature of the industry, a focus is placed on the impact of the Millennial generation and social media in practicing public relations today. Current public relations issues, trends, and challenges are reviewed and discussed.

The course also covers:

- appropriate professional and ethical standards,
- crisis communication,
- meetings and events,
- affecting public opinion and persuading, and

- research and evaluation.

For this semester, there are 15 modules. All lectures, videos, assignments, discussion items, selected readings, and other instructions are on the course website.

COURSE POLICIES:

ATTENDANCE POLICY: Because this is an online, asynchronously delivered course, attendance in the form of calling roll will not occur; however, students are expected to sign onto the course site at least once each day to check for course updates in the announcements and discussion sections of the site.

QUIZ/EXAM DATES/POLICIES: Quizzes will be on lectures, readings, and videos. Quizzes are to be completed by 11:59 p.m. (ET) Sunday on the week of the module. There will be two exams, a mid-term and final, with 25 questions.

LATE POLICY: As part of being successful communication industry practitioners, meeting deadlines is critical, so: No assignments, quizzes or discussion posts will be accepted after due date and time - and don't ask.

ASSIGNMENT POLICY:

Quizzes - Details:

Quizzes will be on lectures, readings, and videos. Quizzes are to be completed by 11:59 p.m. (ET) Sunday on the week of the module

Exams - Details:

There will be two exams, a mid-term and final, with 25 questions.

Weekly Lectures:

A lecture video will be posted to the course website on Canvas for each module. These videos will vary in length depending on the material. It is your responsibility to watch each of the videos. Although it is possible to watch the pre-recorded video lectures at any time and at any pace, keeping up with the videos week to week according to the schedule will be easier as many build off the other along with the weekly readings.

UF POLICIES:

UNIVERSITY POLICY ON ACCOMMODATING STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES: Students with disabilities requesting accommodations should first register with the Disability Resource Center (352-392-8565, www.dso.ufl.edu/drc ) by providing appropriate documentation. Once registered, students will receive an accommodation letter which must be presented to the instructor when requesting accommodation. Students with disabilities should follow this procedure as early as possible in the semester.

UNIVERSITY POLICY ON ACADEMIC CONDUCT: UF students are bound by The Honor Pledge which states, “We, the members of the University of Florida community, pledge to hold ourselves and our peers to the highest standards of honesty and integrity by abiding by the Honor Code. On all work submitted for credit by students at the University of Florida, the following pledge is either required or implied: "On my honor, I have neither given nor received unauthorized aid in doing this assignment." The Honor Code (<http://www.dso.ufl.edu/sccr/process/student-conduct-honor-code/>) specifies a number of behaviors that are in violation of this code and the possible sanctions. Furthermore, you are obligated to report any condition that facilitates academic misconduct to appropriate personnel. If you have any questions or concerns, please consult with the instructor or TAs in this class.

ACADEMIC HONESTY: All undergraduate students in the College of Journalism and Communications are expected to conduct themselves with the highest degree of integrity. It is the students’ responsibility to ensure that they know and understand the requirements of every assignment. At a minimum, this includes avoiding the following:

Plagiarism: Plagiarism occurs when an individual presents the ideas or expressions of another as his or her own. Students must always credit others’ ideas with accurate citations and must use quotation marks and citations when presenting the words of others. A thorough understanding of plagiarism is a precondition for admittance to graduate studies in the college.

Cheating: Cheating occurs when a student circumvents or ignores the rules that govern an academic assignment such as an exam or class paper. It can include using notes, in physical or electronic form, in an exam, submitting the work of another as one’s own, or reusing a paper a student has composed for one class in another class. If a student is not sure about the rules that govern an assignment, it is the student’s responsibility to ask for clarification from his instructor.

Misrepresenting Research Data: The integrity of data in mass communication research is a paramount issue for advancing knowledge and the credibility of our professions. For this reason any intentional misrepresentation of data, or misrepresentation of the conditions or circumstances of data collection, is considered a violation of academic integrity. Misrepresenting data is a clear violation of the rules and requirements of academic integrity and honesty.

Any violation of the above stated conditions is grounds for immediate dismissal from the program and will result in revocation of the degree if the degree previously has been awarded.

Students are expected to adhere to the University of Florida Code of Conduct

CLASS DEMEANOR OR NETIQUETTE: All members of the class are expected to follow rules of common courtesy in all email messages, threaded discussions and chats. These rules of courtesy for online interactions are often called “Netiquette.”
