Passion for Photography

Jarrett Baker's photo of a firefighter at Gatorwood Apartments helped him win sixth place in the Hearst Competition's News/Sports category.

HEARST UPDATE

Telecom ranks sixth, photojournalism third

The Department of Telecommunication ranks sixth in the annual Hearst competition.

Alexandria Butler recently placed eighth in the Television Features category. She received a $500 reward, with a $500 match to the department.

Crystal Brewer tied for 11th in the Radio competition.

The department recently entered Jason Dunning and Natalie Caula's work in the Hard News Reporting category.

Dunning's piece is a spot-news report made after Tropical Storm Alberto brushed Cedar Key, before making landfall in Taylor County.

Caula was WUFT-TV's lead reporter in the extended coverage of Danny Rolling's execution.

The Department of Journalism, meanwhile, ranks third in the photojournalism contest.

Jarrett Baker placed sixth in the News/Sports category, winning $500, with a $500 match going to the department. Tim Hussin placed 11th out of 50 entries.

NOT TAKEN FOR GRANTED

Stations receive PBS money

The stations' Education and Outreach department recently received a $4,000 grant from the PBS children's program, "It's a Big Big World."

The department will use the money for the North Central Florida Alliance for the Education of Young Children Educational Extravaganza on March 10, the Earth Day Event at the Florida Natural History Museum on April 21, and the Party for the Planet on April 22.

TECH TALK

TV bullpen steps up

Recent improvements in the TV news reporters' bullpen allow tape logging, scripting and editing from the same desk for special projects.

This interim step is part of an effort to create a pair of areas, rooms 2135 and G215, where broadcast news students can have access to nonlinear editors for special projects and resume tapes.

NEW HIRE

College engineers a change

Bill McClancy accepted the TV Engineering Technologist position.

He started working earlier this month.
