

RTV 3601 Performance in Telecommunication Spring 2017

Instructor: Myra Monroe
Section: 147G
Room: TBA
Periods: 4 - 6 on Thursdays
Office Hours: By Appt. and by email
E-mail: myramonroe@cox.net or mmonroe@ufl.edu

RTV 3601 is designed to help students improve their on-air performance in radio and television news. Special emphasis is placed on voice, delivery, live reporting, anchoring and appearance. Students will gain practical experience reading the teleprompter and performing in front of the camera, as well as voicing for radio.

Objectives and goals of the course include:

- (1) Proper breathing, delivery and diction for voicing stories for radio and television
- (2) Techniques for reporting live stories from the field (radio voicers or t.v. live shots)
- (3) Skills that will help you produce more effective standups for television news packages
- (4) Techniques for better communication, poise and posture as a news anchor
- (5) Practice reading a teleprompter
- (6) Suggestions for making the most of your on-air appearance

Recommended Equipment (not required)

- A cell phone that can record audio, computer with web cam

Class demeanor expected: students will be expected to participate in class discussions, turn off all cell phones BEFORE class starts or be prepared to surrender cell phone to instructor if it goes off in class, and treat your instructor and classmates with respect. Be on time for class.

Course Evaluation. Students are expected to provide feedback on the quality of instruction in this course based on 10 criteria. These evaluations are conducted online at <https://evaluations.ufl.edu>

Evaluations are typically open during the last two or three weeks of the semester, but students will be given specific times when they are open. Summary results of these assessments are available to students at <https://evaluations.ufl.edu/results>

The University of Florida Honor Code was voted on and passed by the Student Body in the Fall 1995 semester. The Honor Code reads as follows:

Preamble: In adopting this Honor Code, the students of the University of Florida recognize that academic honesty and integrity are fundamental values of the University community. Students who enroll at the University commit to holding themselves and their peers to the high standard of honor required by the Honor Code. Any individual who becomes aware of a violation of the Honor Code is bound by honor to take corrective action. A student-run Honor Court and faculty support are crucial to the success of the Honor Code. The quality of a University of Florida education is dependent upon the community acceptance and enforcement of the Honor Code.

The Honor Code: “We, the members of the University of Florida community, pledge to hold ourselves and our peers to the highest standards of honesty and integrity.”

On all work submitted for credit by students at the University of Florida, the following pledge is either required or implied:

"On my honor, I have neither given nor received unauthorized aid in doing this assignment."
