Course Expectations:

This is a 12-week course broken into 12 modules. Each week, you will complete readings, watch a lecture, and write discussion posts. There are 6 assignments throughout the semester in varying length and detail, and one final project at the end of the semester.

You are expected to complete work on time and participate in class discussions in a professional manner while respecting the instructor and fellow students.

Ownership Education:

As graduate students, you are not passive participants in this course. All students in this Program have a background in marketing, advertising, public relations, journalism, or similar fields. This class allows you to not only take ownership of your educational experience but to also provide your expertise and knowledge in helping your fellow classmates. The Canvas shell will have an open Q&A thread where you should pose questions to your classmates when you have a question as it relates to an assignment or an issue that has come up at work. Your classmates along with your instructor will be able to respond to these questions and provide feedback and help. This also allows everyone to gain the same knowledge in one location rather than the instructor responding back to just one student which limits the rest of the class from gaining this knowledge.

Required Text:

There is no required textbook for this course. Instead, readings and case studies will be assigned each week. Materials for the course include scholarly works, articles, blogs, and excerpts in digital media theory and criticism, gaming, virtual reality, social media, and human-computer interaction. The readings will provide in-depth analysis of the uses for gaming, virtual reality, and gamification.

Teaching Philosophy:

To help students maximize their knowledge of digital communication tools in order to reach their creative potential in creating integrated marketing communication strategies using a wide variety of skills.

Course Policies:

Attendance Policy:

Because this is an online asynchronously delivered course, attendance in the form of calling roll will not occur; however, students are expected to sign onto the course site at least once daily to check for course updates in the announcements and discussion sections of the site.

Late Work and Make-up Policy:

Deadlines are critical to this class. All work is due on or before the due date. Extensions for deadlines will only be for preapproved emergencies. Minor inconveniences such as family vacation or minor illness are not valid reasons for extensions. With this in mind there will be penalties for late work:

- | | |
|---|---------------------|
| • Less than an hour late | 05 points off |
| • More than an hour late but less than 24 hours late | 10 points off |
| • More than 24 hours late but less than 48 hours late | 15 points off |
| • More than 48 hours late | 25 points off |
| • 72 hours or more late | Not accepted at all |

Issues with uploading work for a grade is not an excuse. If a student is having technical difficulties with Canvas, there are other means to submit completed work. Student may email files or even links to Drive folders to Instructor via UF email. Students should compensate for technical difficulties by not waiting until the last minute to submit work.

Technical issue policy: Any requests for make-ups due to technical issues MUST be accompanied by the ticket number received from LSS when the problem was reported to them. The ticket number will document the time and date of the problem. You MUST email your instructor within 24 hours of the technical difficulty if you wish to request a make-up. Contact UF helpdesk (352) 392-HELP.

Requirements for class attendance and make-up exams, assignments, and other work in this course are consistent with university policies that can be found in the online catalogue at: <https://catalog.ufl.edu/ugrad/current/regulations/info/attendance.aspx> .

Coursework Submissions:

All coursework should be submitted through Canvas.

Course and Assignment Details

Weekly Lectures:

The Instructor will post a lecture video to Canvas for 11 of the 12 weeks and two additional videos – one is an introduction to the course and course topic and the other will cover the syllabus. These videos will vary in length depending on the material. It is your responsibility to watch each of the videos.

Although it is possible to watch the pre-recorded video lectures at any time and at any pace, keeping up with the videos week to week according to the schedule will be easier as many build off the other along with the weekly readings.

Readings and Activities:

Required readings can be found in the Weekly Schedule in this syllabus and in the Modules in Canvas. You are expected to read all required readings and case studies and watch any accompanying videos (called Activities).

Students will watch these videos each week to get ideas for their final projects and assignments.

Thought Paper:

You are expected to provide a 500-word Thought Paper each week to cover all readings and lecture materials. The instructor will post a question or writing prompt in the Discussion Board for you to write your paper based on the knowledge learned during the week. Your reactions are not summaries of the material presented, but actual reactions to the writing prompt. You may discuss areas not mentioned during the lecture that relate to the discussion, or discuss topics not included in the lecture or readings. You will not get any points if you skip the Thought Paper but comment on others'.

Thought Papers are due by 11:59 PM EST each Wednesday throughout the term. Thought Papers should not only provide an answer to the prompt, but your analysis or insight, and reference any experience you have with the topic.

Please reference at least 3 sources from the following: reading, examples from lectures, and Activities in your reaction so it is clear when you are discussing them.

You will also need to include two questions. Your questions should explore deeper into the topic than the readings and videos alone, and provoke thoughtful responses and insight from your classmates. These questions will also be used to provide classmates ideas for comments they may answer in response to your post. Please follow appropriate netiquette rules.

Your classmates will comment on your Thought Paper and you will comment on theirs to you. You are required to comment on at least 3 students' posts.

For full credit, you are expected to respond to every comment made on your own paper. Your comments are due by Fridays at 11:59 PM EST. Responses to the comments on your own post are due Sundays at 11:59 PM.

You should provide all responses to fellow students' comments by 11:59 PM EST on the Sunday of the week assigned.

Thought Paper Rubric

Reading reaction posts are awarded points of 0 -100 according to levels of completion:

- 100 points: Completed task fully and by the due date according to the schedule. Reaction meets word requirement and provides an actual answer/reaction to the writing prompt and not a summary of the lecture and reading materials. Includes all sources required and meets all requirements.
- 80 points: Reaction post made by the due date according to the schedule. Reaction DOES NOT meet word requirement, but provides an actual reaction to the prompt and not a summary.
- 50 points: Reaction post made by the due date according to the schedule. Reaction DOES NOT meet word requirement and DOES NOT provide an actual reaction to the prompt and instead is a summary.
- 25 points: Reaction post made by the due date according to the schedule. Reaction DOES NOT meet word requirement, DOES NOT provide an actual reaction to the prompt and instead is incoherent or off-topic.
- 0 points: No reaction post made.

Reading Discussion Comments:

Each week you will comment on 3 Thought Papers by fellow students in Canvas. Comments must add something of value to the conversation thread (be thought provoking). You are required to respond to every comment on your own paper. You will only receive full credit if you respond to all comments on your post. No late comments will be accepted.

- 0 points: No comments posted or the comments posted do not add to the discussion.

Assignments:

Students will complete 6 assignments assigned throughout the semester. Not each week will have an assignment. It is the student's responsibility to know which week an assignment is due. Each assignment will help the student explore and further understand the subject discussed that week.

Each student will post a 1,200 word thought paper to Canvas answering the assignment question. The assignments are for students to use the material learned from weekly readings and lectures. Most importantly, students can see how gamification applies in the real world.

Your assignment thought paper is due Sundays at 11:59 pm EST the week assigned. You must submit your assignment through the Assignment tab in Canvas, not through email.

Students may use their own organization's brand or create a marketing plan for another brand of their choice.

Students must submit their topics by the 6th week of classes. Students will turn in three components - PITCH, MARKETING PLAN, and PRESENTATION. - How the business/brand will use brand messaging throughout the game to market their brand. • Marketing goals - is this for sales, clicks, user retention, customer loyalty, etc. • Tools to measure success - how would you track metrics?
- Dates campaign will run for.

The MARKETING PLAN (10 pages minimum) will include:

- Targeting and positioning
- PR plan
- Marketing key message
- Game, app, virtual world, etc., description
- Pre-launch marketing plan

- 12pt font
- Double spaced
- 1-inch margins
