Required Materials:

There is no required text. However, you do need your own thumb drive for this class, to save story scripts and audio files. We recommend at least 8GB of storage.

Recommended: While there are high quality audio recorders assigned just to Noticias WUFT for check out (Equipment Room, lower level of Weimer) and these are our preferred recording device, you may also wish to invest in a year-long subscription to an app called TapeACall ($9.99/year), for situations in which you get a last-minute interview or one after business hours, you are not in the newsroom, and did not have a chance to check out a recorder. However, remember you must always get consent from any interviewee, prior to making a recording of your interview.

Weekly Responsibilities:

- Attend the Monday class (Noticias Plus). Come prepared to this meeting by being an informed news consumer at the local, state, national, and international level.

- By 8pm each Monday after the Noticias Plus class, you will send me your ideas via Google Drive. You should think of two story ideas from each category (local, state, national, international, sports, calendar): one story for the current week, and the other for an “evergreen” show (dates for these shows are at the end of this syllabus; you will need to pick one for each story). Alternatively, please make sure you bring your iPad or laptop to be able to review/share them with your team.

Please also have two ideas for Asuntos Públicos guests/topics. A printed copy of your brief critique, and Asuntos Públicos ideas must be turn in at the beginning of Noticias Plus. (In addition to the story idea sheets, your instructor will meet with you monthly to develop a semester plan for A.P. topics and guests, to ensure this segment is the best it can be for our listeners.)

- Bring a positive team attitude, professional behavior and respect for co-workers, good work ethic, strong news judgment and time management skills, and ability to honor and meet deadlines without exception.

- Deliverables: Anchors will produce wraps or readers or SOTs (or some combination) each week as the show needs warrant, as well as produce one “Asuntos Públicos” interview each week (one anchor will produce the current week’s interview, while the other should produce an “evergreen” Asuntos Públicos segment). Writing assignments are due at the end of your Noticias shifts (firm deadline), and the Asuntos Públicos interview needs to be completed by 1pm on Wednesdays. The final show script (for recording) will be due by 5pm on Wednesdays, with show approving taking place Fridays from 10am-12pm. Anchors will also provide a brief biographical sketch about their weekly Asuntos Públicos guest (including a photo) and the interview’s content for upload to the web together with a brief summary of the show where that interview will run, this is due Thurs. by noon. Keep in mind that some of your Noticias time will also need to be completed outside of your newsroom shift. Please also be an attentive communicator (e.g. check email and phone messages regularly). Your scripts will usually need revisions before they are ready for air, and you will need to respond to revision requests in a timely manner in order for show production to stay on schedule. Additionally, as executive producer, you will have to make sure that the writers and reporters on your team are on track with their stories, and also provide guidance and support when they need it (of course, you can always contact me for additional help when necessary).

- In addition to writing readers, anchoring and producing for the weekly show, you may be asked to write additional news stories for our website. These include, but may not be limited to, local reactions on a national/international topic, or a developing local story. These stories will also include visual aspects, when available, such as pictures and/or video.

- With Noticias in 90 in full swing, every student will have the opportunity to produce/present a Newsbrief. Noticias in 90 will air every Monday through Friday at 5:58. It will be 90 seconds of the day's top stories. If you sign up and are assigned a Noticias en 90 Segundos shift you will be required to be in the newsroom from 1 – 5 pm the day of your shift. This is in addition to your shift for the Noticias radio show. If more than 5 people sign up for Noticias en 90 Segundos you will be paired up with someone that is already experienced and you will both alternate the On-camera presence each week.

- Google Drive Folder: Each week you will need to review all edits to the stories you produced that particular week. Tracked changes will be revised during your one-on-one meeting with the instructor. Make sure to include your story ideas and Asuntos Públicos description with the stories produced each week. Also include a copy of the web blurb you submitted for each week. The one-on-one meetings will occur at least once every other week. Your newscast critiques should also be included in your Google Drive Folder.

- Dress Code: There is a newsroom (INC) dress code, which must be followed at all times. You will receive a copy. If you want sources, employers, and others to take you seriously as a professional, this is the first step. If in doubt, take it “up a notch” for the newsroom, and keep it more conservative/professional. 😊

- Food and Drink Policy: Beverages with lids ONLY are permitted in the newsroom. Otherwise, there is absolutely no food or drink permitted. (Break room with refrigerator is upstairs.) Please set an example for others, and if you see any violations, kindly remind others of this policy as well.

- Workspace Courtesies: Please keep your workspace clean. There are many others who will use the same computer or seating areas throughout the day. Whether you are working in the designated Noticias workspace (table) or elsewhere in the newsroom, please clean up after yourself and respect the environment. In addition, do **not** leave your work on the newsroom computers' desktops (unattended). It is likely to get erased. Save your work *often* and on your personal jump drive or thumb drive. Also, please make sure you follow all the steps for saving your scripts and audio as described in El Cuaderno.

- Attendance: Consider your participation on the Noticias WUFT news team as a job—that's exactly what it is, although you are also learning how to be a journalist. Everyone else on the Noticias team is counting on you. Thus, you are expected to be here at the assigned times and complete all weekly assignments. If for some reason you have a family emergency, become ill, etc., you must contact me to let me know.

- Timesheet: Please fill in your electronic timesheet daily for the hours worked each day. Tabulate at the end of each day, so that you do not lose track. You will receive an email with the link to this electronic timesheet the first week of classes. A printed copy of this timesheet should be included in your Google Drive Folder at the midpoint of the semester as well as at the end of the semester.

- Tips: Take advantage of your instructor's office hours for feedback on your writing, interviewing, and reporting skills. You will enhance your learning, and learn quicker, by seeking this feedback during my office hours (in newsroom). In addition:

- Always have a backup plan (Plan B, Plan C). Often, your first story idea will not pan out. Be ready in case it doesn't. The show still has to go on the air.
- Allow more time than you think you'll need to complete your stories. Whether writing a reader or a wrap, sometimes things take longer due to needed fact-checking, rescheduling of interviews, the storyline changing by the minute, editing or technical problems, etc. Better to get the story done a bit early than not make deadline.
- Ask for help when you need it. Whether it's who to contact as a source for a story, or how to adjust the audio level or microphone when recording, don't be afraid to ask questions. At the end of the day, our highest concern must be the editorial and production quality of our newscast. Don't feel embarrassed... we are all learning, and asking questions is one of the best ways to do so!
