- Login with your GatorLink username and password
- Your course will be listed in the Courses menu in the top left navigation bar of the canvas. You might have to click on View All at the bottom depending on how many courses you have taken at UF

COURSE PHILOSOPHY

- This course is part of an integrated Sales Certificate and it is designed for those who are interested in digital media sales or those who are already in the digital media sales field
- Whether your goal is to work in digital media sales for a publisher in the advertising industry, or increase sales utilizing digital media selling tools and best practices for your own business, this course will help you understand digital media concepts better and how applications of various tools can assist you to become more successful
- Course textbooks and articles are supplemental elements to engaging lectures. My goal is to not only provide you with industry information and current digital media trends, but also to paint the picture with real life examples and applications
- My role, as your instructor, is to encourage you and push you to not only understand the concepts planned for each lesson, but more importantly, how to think strategically and develop successful digital media plans for prospective clients and/or customers
- With the exception of two lessons which are LIVE, this course is delivered online asynchronously and will require every participant to stay engaged throughout the duration of the term. Interactive participation will be pivotal for a maximized learning experience

LEARNING GOALS

At the end of the class, you should have a solid understanding of digital media sales, the digital environment and how to:

- Identify and explain key concepts related to sales efforts in digital and social media
- Implement digital and social media in sales efforts for either B2C and B2B
- Explain ways that social media complements face-to-face sales activities
- Develop a B2C or B2B digital media plan and justify integrated efforts with research, measurements and trends

As part of this course, you will be required to submit assignments that will require the use of technology. For this class, you will need:

- Microsoft Word, Excel, PowerPoint. Students can obtain free Office 365 software
<http://www.it.ufl.edu/gatorcloud/free-software-downloads-office-365-proplus/get-o365-proplus/>
- Recording Device: Webcam on computer (Desktop or Laptop) OR Digital Camera/Video Recorder/Phone
- Free screen recording software is available from various sources such as <https://screencast-o-matic.com/home>
- YouTube or Vimeo account to upload and host presentations

COURSE POLICIES

ATTENDANCE POLICY:

Because this is an online asynchronously delivered course (except for 2 live classes), attendance in the form of calling roll will not occur; however, you are expected to sign into the course site at least once each day to check for course updates in the Announcements and Discussion sections of the site. Additionally you are expected to watch lectures and complete readings and assignments accordingly.

LATE WORK AND MAKE-UP POLICY:

Deadlines are critical to this class. All work is due on or before the due date. Extensions for deadlines will only be granted for extenuating circumstances such as catastrophic emergencies or major illness that can be documented. Minor inconveniences such as family vacation, work conferences, or minor illnesses are not valid reasons for extensions. There will be no credit for late work.

Issues with uploading work for a grade is not an excuse. If a student is having technical difficulties with Canvas, there are other means to submit completed work. Student may email .zip files or even links to Dropbox folders to Instructor via UF email. Students should compensate for technical difficulties by not waiting until the last minute to submit work.

EMERGENCY AND EXTENUATING CIRCUMSTANCES POLICY: Students who face emergencies, such as a major personal medical issue, a death in the family, serious illness of a family member, or other situations beyond their control should notify their instructors immediately.

Students are also advised to contact the Dean of Students Office if they would like more information on the medical withdrawal or drop process: <https://www.dso.ufl.edu/care/medical-withdrawal-process/> .

Students MUST inform their academic advisor before dropping a course, whether for medical or non-medical reasons. Your advisor will assist with notifying professors and go over options for how to proceed with their classes. Your academic advisor is Tiffany Robbert, and she may be reached at trobber@jou.ufl.edu .

UNIVERSITY POLICY ON ACCOMMODATING STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES

Students requesting accommodation for disabilities must first register with the Dean of Students Office (<http://www.dso.ufl.edu/drc/>). The Dean of Students Office will provide documentation to the student who must then provide this documentation to the instructor when requesting accommodation. You must submit this documentation prior to submitting assignments or taking the quizzes or exams. Accommodations are not retroactive, therefore, students should contact the office as soon as possible in the term for which they are seeking accommodations.

Students with Disabilities who may need accommodations in this class are encouraged to notify the instructor and contact the Disability Resource Center (DRC) so that reasonable accommodations may be implemented. DRC is located in room 001 in Reid Hall or you can contact them by phone at 352-392-8565.

NETIQUETTE: COMMUNICATION COURTESY

All members of the class are expected to follow rules of common courtesy in all email messages, threaded discussions and chats. <http://teach.ufl.edu/wp-content/uploads/2012/08/NetiquetteGuideforOnlineCourses.pdf>

CLASS DEMEANOR

Mastery in this class requires preparation, passion, and professionalism. Students are expected, within the requirements allowed by university policy, to watch the lectures, actively participate, and meet all deadlines. Work assigned in advance of class should be completed as directed. Full participation in online and live discussions, group projects, and small group activities is expected.

My role as instructor is to identify critical issues related to the course, direct you and teach relevant information, assign appropriate learning activities, create opportunities for assessing your performance, and communicate the outcomes of such assessments in a timely, informative, and professional way. Feedback is essential for you to have confidence that you have mastered the material and for me to determine that you are meeting all course requirements.

At all times it is expected you will welcome and respond professionally to assessment feedback, that you will treat your fellow students and me with respect, and that you will contribute to the success of the class as best as you can.

COURSEWORK SUBMISSIONS & DEADLINES

This syllabus and all lectures, assignments, discussion items, instructions are on the course website in Canvas. Lectures provided by the instructor are intended to lead into the week’s assignments. You are required to watch the lectures.

GRADE COMPOSITION:

Weekly Discussions.....	20%
Five (5) Quizzes.....	20%
Mid-Course Project.....	20%
Final Project.....	40%
Total.....	100%

There will be various assignments throughout the course including weekly discussion posts, quizzes, and two projects.

I do round up to next decimal. 92.7 is an A. Current UF grading policies for assigning grade points: <https://catalog.ufl.edu/ugrad/current/regulations/info/grades.aspx>

This course will be rigorous but it will also be very informative to you. Start your projects early, manage your time, review your text notes and re-listen to the lectures. Most importantly, make sure you always ask questions. You should be very successful in class and more importantly in your job if you follow this procedure.

COURSE & ASSIGNMENT DETAILS

WEEKLY DISCUSSIONS (7 TOTAL):

Each week you will be assigned readings from the required textbooks and articles listed on the syllabus. Readings will supplement each lecture. Every week, students will be expected to participate in a discussion posts (500 word minimum), showcasing their understanding for that week's topics of discussion.

Time management is critical and the suggested preparation work flow is as follows:

- Read assigned chapters and articles first
- Watch the lecture
- Participate in weekly discussion post using key take-aways from the readings and lectures

The purpose of the weekly discussion assignment is to stimulate deeper understanding and application of the various topics discussed in lecture. Student are NOT required to comment on other students' weekly posts, however, everyone is highly encouraged to review other classmates' responses and provide constructive commentary if desired.

Once your post has been submitted, you will not be able to edit further, so make sure you take your time and proofread your content prior to submission.

QUIZZES (5 TOTAL):

Concepts discussed in class and the textbooks will be tested throughout the course in the form of quizzes. Students are expected to have read the material to succeed. Quizzes may be delivered in the form of multiple choice and true/false.

All quizzes will be timed at 60 minutes, will consist of 10 questions, each delivered for assessment one at a time. Please make sure you are prepared having read all assigned readings and watched weekly lectures prior to attempting the assessment. Quizzes are intended to maintain students to date with the lectures. Grades will be available soon after the completion of the assessment. Correct answers will be available every Monday following the quiz at 12:00am ET.

MID-COURSE PROJECT (TOTAL 100 PTS):

Competitive research is the key to building any business and driving sales. This project will be the building base for the final project of the class. Students are expected to select a business in their industry of choice and put together a competitive analysis presentation. For this assignment, students will select to focus their project in Business to Consumer (B2C) or Business to Business (B2B) digital sales. Detailed expectations for this assignment and all questions will be answered on the first lecture module in order to prepare students.

The purpose of this project is to assess understanding of the competitive environment in the field or industry selected by the student. Student must select a B2B or B2C focus for this project and through the end of the semester. Students will research various competitors' digital efforts and study the effectiveness and justification of different digital outlets and executions.

Business to Business (B2B) Focus:

Student must select 3 or 4 corporations or brands to investigate. Student will be required to provide both quantitative and qualitatively evidence of various digital efforts via all different outlets. Personal insight utilizing key learned concepts from lecture is required.

EXAMPLE:

Focus: B2B

Industry Selected: Soft Beverages

Company/Brand Selected: Coca Cola

Competitors: 7Up, Pepsi, Dr Pepper

7Up:

- Advertising Digital Efforts:
 - Social Media: Include all outlets, examples of metrics, creative digital executions.
 - Paid Media: Include all outlets, examples of metrics, creative digital executions.
 - Earned Media: Include all outlets, examples of metrics, creative digital executions.
- Analysis of why the brand team selected one digital media more over another?
- Insight and examples
- Industry Trends Affecting the Industry

Business to Consumer (B2C) Focus:

Student must select 3 or 4 companies or brands to investigate. Student will be required to provide both quantitative and qualitatively evidence of various digital efforts via all different outlets. Personal insight utilizing key learned concepts from lecture is required.

EXAMPLE:

Focus: B2C

Industry Selected: Party Planning

Company/Brand Selected: You Are Invited, LLC.

Competitors: ABC Parties, RSVPd Inc., PartiesbyMel.com

ABC Parties:

- Advertising Digital Efforts:
 - Social Media: Include all outlets, examples of metrics, creative digital executions.
 - Paid Media: Include all outlets, examples of metrics, creative digital executions.
 - Earned Media: Include all outlets, examples of metrics, creative digital executions.
- Analysis of why the brand team selected one digital media more over another?
- Insight and examples
- Industry Trends Affecting the Industry

PROJECT FORMAT & GRADE ALLOCATION

In order to ensure students stay on track to deliver a quality mid-course project, there will be two (2) checkpoints where materials will be due in order to alleviate work load and promote success in the assignment and part of total points for midterm assignment.

• Initial Focus & Company Selection (10 PTS Due Week 2)

FINAL PROJECT & VIDEO PRESENTATION (100 PTS)

Utilizing competitive research findings from the mid-course project, students will put together a complete digital media plan to present via video along with a PowerPoint Presentation. Students are expected to apply key learnings from all lectures and readings to design their presentation. Students are also required to develop creative digital activations for their business and provide logical rationale for each activation.

The purpose of this project is to assess understanding of the steps required to develop a digital media plan with either a B2B or B2C focus. Students will be required to implement the competitive research gathered from the mid-course project with derived logical justification for creative ideation for their various digital activations for their selected company or brand.

PROJECT FORMAT & GRADE ALLOCATION

In order to ensure students stay on track to deliver a quality final project, there will be one (1) checkpoint where materials will be due in order to alleviate work load and promote success in the assignment.

• Digital Media Plan Copy For Peer Feedback (10 PTS Due Week 9)

Description: Students will put together a draft of their media plan for peer evaluation. They must provide all competitive research relevant to their business focus and industry, creative ideas for digital executions, justification for ideas and digital media outlets selected.

COURSE EVALUATION

Students are expected to provide feedback on the quality of instruction in this course based on 10 criteria. These evaluations are conducted online at <https://evaluations.ufl.edu>

Evaluations are typically open during the last two or three weeks of the semester. Students will be given specific times when they are open. Summary results of these assessments are available to students at <https://evaluations.ufl.edu/results>

UNIVERSITY POLICY ON ACADEMIC MISCONDUCT

Academic honesty and integrity are fundamental values of the University community. Students should be sure that they understand the UF Student Honor Code at <http://www.dso.ufl.edu/students.php>

The University of Florida Honor Code was voted on and passed by the Student Body in the fall 1995 semester. The Honor Code reads as follows:

Preamble: In adopting this Honor Code, the students of the University of Florida recognize that academic honesty and integrity are fundamental values of the University community. Students who enroll at the University commit to holding themselves and their peers to the high standard of honor required by the Honor Code. Any individual who becomes aware of a violation of the Honor Code is bound by honor to take corrective action. A student-run Honor Court and faculty support are crucial to the success of the Honor Code. The quality of a University of Florida education is dependent upon the community acceptance and enforcement of the Honor Code.

The Honor Code: "We, the members of the University of Florida community, pledge to hold ourselves and our peers to the highest standards of honesty and integrity."

On all work submitted for credit by students at the University of Florida, the following pledge is either required or implied:

"On my honor, I have neither given nor received unauthorized aid in doing this assignment."

For more information about academic honesty, contact Student Judicial Affairs, P202 Peabody Hall, 352-392-1261.

ACADEMIC HONESTY

All graduate students in the College of Journalism and Communications are expected to conduct themselves with the highest degree of integrity. It is the students' responsibility to ensure that they know and understand the requirements of every assignment. At a minimum, this includes avoiding the following:

Plagiarism: Plagiarism occurs when an individual presents the ideas or expressions of another as his or her own. Students must always credit others' ideas with accurate citations and must use quotation marks and citations when presenting the words of others. A thorough understanding of plagiarism is a precondition for admittance to graduate studies in the college.

Cheating: Cheating occurs when a student circumvents or ignores the rules that govern an academic assignment such as an exam or class paper. It can include using notes, in physical or electronic form, in an exam, submitting the work of another as one's own, or reusing a paper a student has composed for one class in another class. If a student is not sure about the rules that govern an assignment, it is the student's responsibility to ask for clarification from his instructor.

Misrepresenting Research Data: The integrity of data in mass communication research is a paramount issue for advancing knowledge and the credibility of our professions. For this reason any intentional 14 misrepresentation of data, or misrepresentation of the conditions or circumstances of data collection, is considered a violation of academic integrity. Misrepresenting data is a clear violation of the rules and requirements of academic integrity and honesty.

Any violation of the above stated conditions is grounds for immediate dismissal from the program and will result in revocation of the degree if the degree previously has been awarded.

Students are expected to adhere to the University of Florida Code of Conduct <https://www.dso.ufl.edu/sccr/process/student-conduct-honor-code>

If you have additional questions, please refer to the Online Graduate Program Student Handbook you received when you were admitted into the Program.
