Course Description
The aim of the Combined GSC/Social Media/Public Relations Capstone course is to prepare students to master the elements of a communication media campaign using principles and strategies of public relations, advertising, and branding. The Capstone is one of the final academic opportunities for you, as a student in the UF CJC Masters program, to apply your accumulated knowledge and skills and to further prepare you to excel in a professional setting.

The course is designed from a professional perspective and makes use of extensive real-life situations and examples. You will apply your skills in a team environment to a client that has been assigned to this semester's Capstone class.

Working with a team, and with feedback from your peers and your instructor, you will develop a communication plan, using analysis for the audience, channels, and projected results.

You will build this campaign throughout the semester, completing various assignments, meeting deadlines and refining your plan. Near the end of the semester, you will have a well-researched, insightful and creative plan and implemented content that illustrates how social media will lead to positive outcomes for your client. Finally, you will present your campaign to the client in an online presentation via Adobe Connect and share your plan learnings with Prof. Hughes.

This is a demanding but exciting and intellectually rewarding opportunity to apply skills and knowledge you have acquired throughout your coursework, during internships, and/or in professional positions. Although the primary course focus is on creating a comprehensive communication campaign, there will be class assignments and discussions to evaluate your knowledge of specific concepts relevant to communication and branding.

This course is conducted in a combination of live classes and asynchronous interaction online. This format mirrors how professional, global communication, social media, branding, and advertising teams increasingly are assembled across geographies and time zones, countries and cultures, working together using digital and online technologies.

The course is centered on you and your learning needs. This course requires graduate-level thinking, analytical skills and maturity. The Capstone is “learning in action.” Done well, your campaign will become an important credential to share with current or prospective employers.

Please note: the instructor will respond to e-mail usually within 24 hours, but the goal is to do so much quicker.
Additionally, some of your classwork may be used—with your permission—on the new CJC social media news site. This publication of your work can aid in building your professional profile on social media. See the site at: http://ufsocial.jou.ufl.edu/

COURSE OBJECTIVES
Working individually and in collaboration with others, students will complete a graduate-level project that demonstrates their ability to integrate the knowledge and skills acquired from the UF Master of Arts and other coursework. The Capstone project is designed to enable students to demonstrate skills in research and analysis, strategic thinking, effective writing and oral communication across multiple channels and for multiple audiences worldwide. Students will apply their learning to a client-oriented social media plan and a presentation of that plan.

COURSE EXPECTATIONS
The Capstone Project will:
- Effectively apply strategic and creative communication skills to complex challenges and opportunities.
- Demonstrate the use and value of research and analysis in responding to potential or emerging communication problems and opportunities using social media.
- Assemble and present a fully integrated communications plan that reflects strategic thinking, industry best practices, trends and tools.
- Work effectively virtually, individually and in collaboration with other people, demonstrating professional communication skills, creativity and originality, accountability, balancing leadership with teamwork and cooperative behaviors.
- Exhibit a commitment to personal and professional ethics.

COURSE DESIGN
This course will combine both live sessions and directed work. Live class sessions will be held select Monday nights of the semester starting at 7pm EST. (Live classes will be recorded for later viewing in case you cannot attend in person.) As this is a “living” course, live classes may be scheduled that are not on this syllabus, and, depending on class status, scheduled classes may be cancelled. We all will be flexible to make sure this Capstone class is a success!!

Too, there may be live classes scheduled with the semester-long client as necessary. These will be scheduled to fit the client’s schedule, so again, we ask flexibility.

Client Interaction
To lessen the time demands on the Capstone client, I will be the interface. To that end, look for a Client Questions thread under the Discussions tab in Canvas and please post your individual and/or team questions there. I will then send a compilation of those questions to our client for answering.

Online Class Requirements
You will need an Internet connection to access this course, view the lectures, attend online class sessions, and complete your assignments.
You must be able to communicate with the instructor. Most communications can be done via email and the discussion board, but you may be asked to join Dropbox.com or Google Drive (both free online services) to share large files.
Lectures
I will regularly post update videos throughout the semester. Watch the Announcements tab for when they are posted along with a link to them.

Assignments
You will have regular assignments and these will be the basis for your final grade. The main goal of this Capstone Course will be the development of a real Communication Plan you will create working with a real client. You will be expected to interact with your team on a regular basis, just like a real-world Agency Account person would do.

Ownership Education
As graduate students, you are not passive participants in this course. All students in this Program have a background in marketing, advertising, public relations, journalism, or similar fields. This class allows you to not only take ownership of your educational experience but to also provide your expertise and knowledge in helping your fellow classmates. The Canvas shell will have an open Q&A thread where you should pose questions to your classmates when you have a question as it relates to an assignment or an issue that has come up at work. Your classmates along with your instructor will be able to respond to these questions and provide feedback and help. This also allows everyone to gain the same knowledge in one location rather than the instructor responding back to just one student which limits the rest of the class from gaining this knowledge.

Required Textbooks
There are no required textbooks for this course. You may find Social Media Marketing by Tracy Tuten and Michael Solomon and Contemporary Advertising by Dr. Weigold of help in your plan development.

COURSE POLICIES
Attendance Policy
This is an online asynchronously delivered course, attendance in the form of calling roll will not occur;

Late Work and Make-up Policy:
You are expected to prepare and submit your assignments on a timely basis. Too, you are expected to work on a timely basis with your Team and meet all agreed upon team deadlines.
Due dates are clearly laid out in this syllabus and in the attendant class calendar.

Deadlines are critical to this class. All work is due on or before the due date. Extensions for deadlines will only be for preapproved emergencies. Minor inconveniences such as family vacation or minor illness are not valid reasons for extensions. With this in mind there will be penalties for late work:
- Less than an hour late 05 points off
- More than an hour late but less than 24 hours late 10 points off
- More than 24 hours late but less than 48 hours late 15 points off
- More than 48 hours late 25 points off
- 49 hours and greater late Not accepted at all
Issues with uploading work for a grade is not an excuse. If you have technical difficulties with Canvas, there are other means to submit completed work. You may email .zip files or even links to Dropbox folders to Instructor via UF email. Another suggestion to compensate for technical difficulties by not waiting until the last minute to submit work.

Technical issue policy: Any requests for make-ups due to technical issues MUST be accompanied by the ticket number received from LSS when the problem was reported to them. The ticket number will document the time and date of the problem. You MUST e-mail your instructor within 24 hours of the technical difficulty if you wish to request a make-up. Contact UF helpdesk (352) 392-HELP.

Emergency and extenuating circumstances policy: Students who face emergencies, such as a major personal medical issue, a death in the family, serious illness of a family member, or other situations beyond their control should notify their instructors immediately. Students are also advised to contact the Dean of Students Office if they would like more information on the medical withdrawal or drop process: https://www.dso.ufl.edu/care/medical-withdrawal-process/.

Students MUST inform their academic advisor before dropping a course, whether for medical or non-medical reasons. Your advisor will assist with notifying professors and go over options for how to proceed with their classes. Your academic advisor is Tiffany Robbert, and she may be reached at trobbert@jou.ufl.edu.

Requirements for class attendance and make-up exams, assignments, and other work in this course are consistent with university policies that can be found in the online catalogue at: https://catalog.ufl.edu/ugrad/current/regulations/info/attendance.aspx

Coursework Submissions
In general, as noted throughout this syllabus, most coursework should be submitted through the Assignments tab in the Canvas classroom.

General Deadlines
This class, like others, involves many deadlines. Please review, print out, and mark off assignments on the Class Calendar which is found on the Home page of Canvas.

Grading
This Capstone course consists of your producing a Communication Plan for your client. You will be responsible for posting key pieces of this plan as we proceed through the semester. Grading for this work will be subjective and will be based on my 25 years as both a client and an agency manager. My goal is to treat you as a professional in your field, and my feedback will be treated as such.

Your work will be evaluated according to this distribution:

COURSE AND ASSIGNMENT DETAILS

In this twelve-week course, we need to stay on point and provide the sections of your plan on a timely basis. Hence, you will see weekly deliverables for each section of the plan to ensure we will all meet this timeframe.

Teamwork is key to success in the Capstone. You will be evaluated by your teammates and I will take your peer reviews into account for final grades. Don’t be the weak link!!

All this said, I will be as flexible as I can be in working with you on deliverables and providing outstanding service and planning for your clients. Stay in touch so we can make sure success is there for all of us.

Scope of Work
One of the first deliverables for your Communication Plan will be a Scope of Work you will present for client review and gain agreement for the “scope” of the plan you will be presenting and executing for your Capstone Project. While the format for this SOW can be flexible, there are key elements that must be included.

If you are unfamiliar with creating a Scope of Work, here are some good resources:
Definition and Overview of a Scope of Work

Scope of Work Example and Templates

Examples of Scope of Work documents

Discussion Posts
Discussion is a key part of this course. You will be expected to read the assigned readings, view the assigned videos, and actively participate in regular discussions through the “Discussions” tab in the Canvas e-learning site. You will see in some weeks I will provide the Discussion Question based on an article that has clear bearing on your work for the week. Some weeks I will ask YOU to find such an article and share it with the class, explaining WHY you chose it and HOW it relates to your client work.

You will be asked to then comment on at least one classmate’s post for the week’s question. Your initial discussion reply should be about 300 words, and your classmate follow-up should be about 200. The initial discussion post is due by Thursday of each week at 11pm ET; the follow up by Saturday of each week at 11pm ET.

Peer Reviews
After each assignment I will ask each of you to evaluate your teammates on their contributions to the week’s work.

Evergreen Content
During weeks 6 – 11 you will develop a Content Calendar and Evergreen content for your client to post (if so desired).

If you are not familiar with Evergreen Content, you will find more information at:

What is Evergreen Content

Tips for Creating Evergreen Content

Why Every Business Needs Evergreen Content

Plan Review
During select class weeks, we will schedule online live classes in which you will present your plan to Professor Hughes using PowerPoint or other platform of your choosing.

Plan Presentation
During Week 12 your team will present the completed plan to the client via the Adobe Connect platform. Each team member will be expected to participate in the presentation.

Plan Learnings
During Week 12 you will individually prepare a summary of your learnings and observations about the plan. Included in this should be what has worked in your plan and what changes you would make in a “revision” of your SMP after thinking about your Capstone learning and client input after your Team presentation. This will be turned in using a PowerPoint format.
You will develop a budget – if appropriate for needs like Facebook Boost – for the client for your plan, and prepare content and posting calendars.

Grading Guidelines for other Deliverables

· Grade of A: Completed task fully and on time, provided meaningful insight and worked to develop appropriate client deliverables.
· Grade of B: Completed task partially and on time, provided some insight and could have been more thorough in development of social media plan.
· Grade of C: Completed task on time, but only provided minimal insight in your use of accounts, and marginally improved overall social media plan.
· Grade of D or F: Submitted plan and presented results, but only provided minimal insight in your use of accounts, results and social media plan.

Important note on grading for Capstone
Unlike many of your previous UF Graduate coursework, much of the grading on your Capstone project will be subjective on the part of the instructor. I will be relying on over two decades experience in this business when I am grading much of your work. My goal is to expect the type of work I want to see from my agency and my team members, and my mentoring of you will be done in that same light.

University Policies

University Policy on Accommodating Students with Disabilities:

Students requesting accommodation for disabilities must first register with the Dean of Students Office (http://www.dso.ufl.edu/drc/). The Dean of Students Office will provide documentation to the student who must then provide this documentation to the instructor when requesting accommodation. You must submit this documentation prior to submitting assignments or taking the quizzes or exams. Accommodations are not retroactive, therefore, students should contact the office as soon as possible in the term for which they are seeking accommodations.

Students with Disabilities who may need accommodations in this class are encouraged to notify the instructor and contact the Disability Resource Center (DRC) so that reasonable accommodations may be implemented. DRC is located in room 001 in Reid Hall or you can contact them by phone at 352-392-8565.

University counseling services and mental health services:

Netiquette: Communication Courtesy:
All members of the class are expected to follow rules of common courtesy in all email messages, threaded discussions and chats. http://teach.ufl.edu/wp-content/uploads/2012/08/NetiquetteGuideforOnlineCourses.pdf

Class Demeanor:
Mastery in this class requires preparation, passion, and professionalism. Students are expected, within the requirements allowed by university policy, to attend class, be on time, and meet all deadlines. Work assigned in advance of class should be completed as directed. Full participation in online and live discussions, group projects, and small group activities is expected.

My role as instructor is to identify critical issues related to the course, direct you to and teach relevant information, assign appropriate learning activities, create opportunities for assessing your performance, and communicate the outcomes of such assessments in a timely, informative, and professional way. Feedback is essential for you to have confidence that you have mastered the material and for me to determine that you are meeting all course requirements.

At all times it is expected that you will welcome and respond professionally to assessment feedback, that you will treat your fellow students and me with respect, and that you will contribute to the success of the class as best as you can.

Getting Help:
For issues with technical difficulties for E-learning in Canvas, please contact the UF Help Desk at:
- Learning-support@ufl.edu
- (352) 392-HELP - select option 2
- https://lss.at.ufl.edu/help.shtml

 Any requests for make-ups due to technical issues MUST be accompanied by the ticket number received from LSS when the problem was reported to them. The ticket number will document the time and date of the problem. You MUST e-mail your instructor within 24 hours of the technical difficulty if you wish to request a make-up.

Other resources are available at http://www.distance.ufl.edu/getting-help for:
- Counseling and Wellness resources

- 352-392-1575
- Disability resources
- Resources for handling student concerns and complaints
- Library Help Desk support

Should you have any complaints with your experience in this course please visit http://www.distance.ufl.edu/student-complaints to submit a complaint.

Course Evaluation:
Students are expected to provide feedback on the quality of instruction in this course based on 10 criteria. These evaluations are conducted online at https://evaluations.ufl.edu

Evaluations are typically open during the last two or three weeks of the semester, but students will be given specific times when they are open. Summary results of these assessments are available to students at https://evaluations.ufl.edu/results

University Policy on Academic Misconduct:
Academic honesty and integrity are fundamental values of the University community. Students should be sure that they understand the UF Student Honor Code at http://www.dso.ufl.edu/students.php

The University of Florida Honor Code was voted on and passed by the Student Body in the Fall 1995 semester. The Honor Code reads as follows:

Preamble: In adopting this Honor Code, the students of the University of Florida recognize that academic honesty and integrity are fundamental values of the University community. Students who enroll at the University commit to holding themselves and their peers to the high standard of honor required by the Honor Code. Any individual who becomes aware of a violation of the Honor Code is bound by honor to take corrective action. A student-run Honor Court and faculty support are crucial to the success of the Honor Code. The quality of a University of Florida education is dependent upon the community acceptance and enforcement of the Honor Code.

The Honor Code: “We, the members of the University of Florida community, pledge to hold ourselves and our peers to the highest standards of honesty and integrity.”

On all work submitted for credit by students at the University of Florida, the following pledge is either required or implied:

"On my honor, I have neither given nor received unauthorized aid in doing this assignment."

For more information about academic honesty, contact Student Judicial Affairs, P202 Peabody Hall, 352-392-1261.

ACADEMIC HONESTY

All graduate students in the College of Journalism and Communications are expected to conduct themselves with the highest degree of integrity. It is the students’ responsibility to ensure that they know and understand the requirements of every assignment. At a minimum, this includes avoiding the following:

Plagiarism: Plagiarism occurs when an individual presents the ideas or expressions of another as his or her own. Students must always credit others’ ideas with accurate citations and must use quotation marks and citations when presenting the words of others. A thorough understanding of plagiarism is a precondition for admittance to graduate studies in the college.

Cheating: Cheating occurs when a student circumvents or ignores the rules that govern an academic assignment such as an exam or class paper. It can include using notes, in physical or electronic form, in an exam, submitting the work of another as one’s own, or reusing a paper a student has composed for one class in another class. If a student is not sure about the rules that govern an assignment, it is the student’s responsibility to ask for clarification from his instructor.

Misrepresenting Research Data: The integrity of data in mass communication research is a paramount issue for advancing knowledge and the credibility of our professions. For this reason any intentional 14 misrepresentation of data, or misrepresentation of the conditions or circumstances of data collection, is considered a violation of academic integrity. Misrepresenting data is a clear violation of the rules and requirements of academic integrity and honesty.

Any violation of the above stated conditions is grounds for immediate dismissal from the program and will result in revocation of the degree if the degree previously has been awarded.

Students are expected to adhere to the University of Florida Code of Conduct https://www.dso.ufl.edu/scrr/process/student-conduct-honor-code

If you have additional questions, please refer to the Online Graduate Program Student Handbook you received when you were admitted into the Program.

Weekly Course Work and Schedule

WEEK ONE

Course introduction and Marketing Overview

There will be a live class this week on Wednesday at 7 pm ET. The Adobe Connect link is: https://uflcoj.adobeconnect.com/sm_capstone_hughes/

This is a mandatory attendance class as we will be not only sharing and overview of the class but we will learn about the Adobe Connect system.

The class will be recorded and available for viewing at your convenience, but this class will set the stage for your Capstone work.

There will also be a second live class this week to meet with the Capstone client. This, too, will be a mandatory meeting. It will be scheduled to meet the client’s schedule. This meeting could be over the weekend, so please be flexible.

Focus on:

The strategic marketing plan—an overview.

How strategic communication fits into the plan

The Combined GSC/Social Media/Public Relations Capstone Plan is a key element of the client’s overall strategic marketing plan. These articles will give a quick overview of how to create a plan:
