COURSE COMMUNICATIONS: Please note that I'm located in Seattle, Washington (three hours behind Gainesville on PST). I will be on campus in October 2018 for the PR Dept's Advisory Council for PR meeting.

If you have any questions about the course or your assignments, please email or call me. I will respond to you within 36 hours during the week and 48 hours on the weekend. If you request a lengthy answer, please send me your phone number and I will call you. Therefore, barring an emergency situation, it is advisable to contact the instructor well in advance of an exam or a deadline in order to give the professor adequate time to respond you. Feel free to set up an appointment to speak with me anytime about the course.

If you notice yourself having trouble in the course, it is crucial that you speak with me immediately.

REQUIRED OR RECOMMENDED TEXTBOOKS (REQUIRED):

Smith, R. D. (2013). Strategic planning for public relations (4th ed.). New York: Routledge.

- apply basic numerical and statistical concepts;
- apply current tools and technologies appropriate for the communications professions in which they work, and to understand the digital world.

INSTRUCTIONAL METHODS: This is an online course. You must have access to a computer, the Internet, a WORKING email address, and Canvas. You should also have the ability to open PDF documents, PowerPoint, and YouTube videos. The textbook is required for this course. Attendance is evaluated by your timely submission of work. When we are not in class, you should expect to spend a minimum of 15 hours on this course per week. If you have any questions throughout the course, please do not hesitate to ask. I am here to help you in any way I can.

COURSE POLICIES:

Everything you need in this course can be found on Canvas. All assignments, PowerPoints, tests, and quizzes will be accessed through Canvas. In this course, you are responsible for your learning and time management. The deadline assignments are firm. Canvas is rarely down and that is the only exception to the rule. You need to prepare and allow time for “technical difficulties.” However, if you start a quiz and it doesn’t complete due to some computer issue, it will show me. Do not panic! Please email me and I will reset your quiz/assignment. It may take a little time so please be patient.

Each chapter will consist of reading materials, an online instructional video, and objectives. Chapters may also include video clips, quizzes, discussions, and case studies. Online classroom time will consist of lectures, video clips, discussion, in-class and out-of-class assignments, and small group projects. Readings in addition to the textbook will also be distributed during the course.

You are also required to follow the Online Etiquette document.

ATTENDANCE POLICY: Requirements for class attendance and make-up exams, assignments, and other work in this course are consistent with university policies that can be found at:

<https://catalog.ufl.edu/ugrad/current/regulations/info/attendance.aspx>.”

COURSE TECHNOLOGY: If you have any issues with the course technology, please contact the UF Help Desk at:

- <http://helpdesk.ufl.edu>
- (352) 392-HELP - select option 2

ONLINE COURSE EVALUATION: Students are expected to provide feedback on the quality of instruction in this course based on 10 criteria. These evaluations are conducted online at <https://evaluations.ufl.edu>. Evaluations are typically open during the last two or three weeks of the semester, but students will be given specific times when they are open. Summary results of these assessments are available to students at <https://evaluations.ufl.edu/results>.

UF POLICIES:

UNIVERSITY POLICY ON ACCOMMODATING STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES

(REQUIRED): “Students with disabilities requesting accommodations should first register with the Disability Resource Center (352-392-8565, www.dso.ufl.edu/drc) by providing appropriate documentation. Once registered, students will receive an accommodation letter which must be presented to the instructor when requesting accommodation. Students with disabilities should follow this procedure as early as possible in the semester.”

UNIVERSITY POLICY ON ACADEMIC CONDUCT: UF students are bound by The Honor Pledge which states, “We, the members of the University of Florida community, pledge to hold ourselves and our peers to the highest standards of honesty and integrity by abiding by the Honor Code. On all work submitted for credit by students at the University of Florida, the following pledge is either required or implied: "On my honor, I have neither given nor received unauthorized aid in doing this assignment." The Honor Code (<http://www.dso.ufl.edu/sccr/process/student-conduct-honor-code/>) specifies a number of behaviors that are in violation of this code and the possible sanctions. Furthermore, you are obligated to report any condition that facilitates academic misconduct to appropriate personnel. If you have any questions or concerns, please consult with the instructor or TAs in this class.

Additional Information: Academic dishonesty is a serious offense that not only comprises your personal integrity, but the integrity of University of Florida and your fellow classmates. Academic dishonesty includes plagiarism, cheating during exams, use of unauthorized study aids, and falsifying any university document. Any offense will be taken extremely seriously, and ignorance of the policies is not an excuse.

Therefore, all assignments using sources must be documented both in-text and in a bibliography using APA style. If you are not sure if something constitutes violation of academic dishonesty, please ask me. COPYING (OR CUT AND PASTING) ANY MATERIAL FROM A WEBSITE CONSTITUTES PLAGIARISM. YOU MUST CREDIT ALL SOURCES OR YOUR TEXTBOOK. Please note that if you copy large chunks of material word for word even with a citation and direct quotes, that this is unacceptable.

I do not tolerate plagiarism. If you plagiarize in any way, you will receive a zero for the entire course, and turned into the Office of Student Conduct.

Do not submit the same work to more than one class without prior written permission from both instructors. Do not adapt work from another class for this class without my prior written permission. Do not adapt someone else's work and submit it as your own. This course requires original work, created at this time, for this purpose.

CLASS DEMEANOR OR NETIQUETTE: All members of the class are expected to follow rules of common courtesy in all email messages, threaded discussions and chats. Please make sure you read carefully the Netiquette Document on the UF site. One of the challenges of online instruction is that we can't see each other and we miss the face-to-face interaction. Please remember, there are individuals on the other end, both when speaking to your classmates and professor.

GETTING HELP AND CAMPUS RESOURCES:

TECHNICAL DIFFICULTIES: For issues with technical difficulties for Canvas, please contact the UF Help Desk at:

GRADING POLICIES:

GRADING: Be responsible for the grade you earn in this class. Feel free to talk to me anytime if you want to discuss your progress in this class. The grading is as follows:

Examinations (2)	(40%)
Assignments	(20%)
Individual/Group Project	(20%)
Quizzes	(20%)
	(100%)

SUBMISSIONS: All out-of-class assignments and the final project must be typed. Assignments should be single-spaced, neat, with appropriate headers. These assignments should be geared toward a working professional, rather than an academic course.

FEEDBACK: You will each receive individual feedback on your assignments within seven days of submission. Additionally, your instructor will post video guides and video feedback to the entire class.

DEADLINES AND POLICIES:

ALL ASSIGNMENTS ARE DUE ON THE THURSDAY OF THE DESIGNATED WEEK BY 11:59 P.M.—NO EXCEPTIONS!

Example: (Due: July 15 at 11:59 p.m. is one minute before July 16).

You must use proper grammar and spell correctly in both the emails you send to me and in the papers you write. I know this is not an English class, but poor grammar and spelling errors indicate you did not spend enough time editing your paper and unfortunately, reflects poorly upon you. So please make sure you are aware of this, and pay close attention to your writing in a university and business setting.

Everything submitted should be should be single-spaced with a max 1.25 spacing with headers (if applicable). Please use normal margins.

ASSIGNMENTS (20%): Assignments deadlines are rigid. Assignments cannot be turned in late so please account for technical issues and such. Assignments should all be done in Microsoft Word, not uploaded as a PDF or txt or works. The uploaded files should be named "last name.assignment name." The assignments will count as 25% of your Project grade.

FINAL PROJECT (20%): See supplementary project sheet for details of your final assignment.

QUIZZES (10%): Weekly quizzes will be given after each chapter. You will have 10 minutes to complete each quiz. For most weeks (please see syllabus for any changes), quizzes will open at 12:01 on Sundays of each week that you have a chapter reading, and you will have until Friday, 11:59 p.m. to complete the quizzes. You also have to take a Syllabus quiz that can be taken as many times as you want. That deadline is August 28.

GRADING RUBRIC: ASSIGNMENTS WILL BE GRADED BASED ON THIS RUBRIC THAT EVALUATES THE IDEAS, ORGANIZATION, SUPPORT, AND STYLE OF EACH PAPER.

EXAMINATIONS (40%): There are two exam dates – the final exam is not cumulative. THERE ARE NO MAKE-UP EXAMINATIONS – If you miss an exam, you will receive a grade of zero. Generally, the exams are a combination of essay and multiple-choice questions. Exams will have time limits so you will not be able to treat this as an open-book test, but instead rely on your knowledge and application of the topics. For both exams, the Powerpoints and book chapters will be on the test – also any supplementary materials discussed may be as well. Both tests are 50 multiple-choice or true/false questions and you have 1 hour and 15 minutes to complete the test.

Exams are only open during a 24-hour window that starts at 12:01 am on the day it is due and will close at 11:59 p.m. You can only take it once (no repeats) and there are absolutely no make-ups so plan accordingly. If you have any technical difficulties, please email me. I can reset the test and can also determine what questions you have answered so far.
