Plagiarism:
No use of others’ work will be allowed in any manner in this course where original work is expected. This includes the Written Review portion of the Mid-Term Project and Final Project, including all social media posts, blogposts, etc. If your Final Project is based on an existing organization, use of photos, videos or other visual elements will be permitted only if you give full credit to the original source and make a note of all such sources in your content marketing plan. Violation of this policy is grounds for a failing grade in the course and other action as recommended by the instructor.
Assignments and Evaluation:

Midterm Project – Due Date:
Content Marketing Presentation and Written Review: Students will work in their teams to find an example of a web-based content marketing effort for a company, product, service or non-profit organization to present to the class. This example will include a blog and a variety of social media efforts. Photography, video, podcasts, newsletters and/or tutorials and guides may also be elements of the content marketing effort.
The team will create a 15-minute presentation that will identify and assess the effectiveness of the following:
The Mission Statement
The Primary Goals
The Core Message and Two Secondary Messages
The Target Audience/Niche
Customer Benefits
The Unique Proposition
Slogans and Taglines
The Publication Schedule
The team will turn in a written review of the content marketing effort that they chose to present and critique. The written review will include an assessment of the factors listed above as well as a critique of the overall effectiveness of the content marketing effort. They will also answer the question “What could have been done differently to improve the effectiveness of the effort and WHY would this make a difference?”

Final Project – Due Date:
Students will work in teams to create a content marketing plan for a company, product, service, or non-profit organization that has been assigned to their team by the instructor. The content marketing plan will include, but is not limited to:
At least 8 blogposts
At least 12 tweets
At least 6 Instagram posts
At least 8 Facebook posts
At least 2 LinkedIn posts
At least two charts or graphic elements or one interactive element
A plan for one hangout or live meetup
The student’s portfolio will also include the Objectives Worksheet and Target Audience Worksheet that were developed in class.

Attendance
https://catalog.ufl.edu/ugrad/1617/regulations/info/attendance.aspx#absences
The professor has the right to make attendance mandatory. For this course, it is mandatory. Anyone who misses one or two class days loses a full letter grade for the course. Because this course meets just one day per week for three periods back-to-back, missing one class day is significant. Missing more than two class days/6 class periods is grounds to be prohibited from further attendance by the professor. At that point, the professor can prohibit attendance and assign a failing grade for excessive absences. Absences count from the first class meeting.

In general, acceptable reasons for absence from or failure to participate in class include illness, serious family emergencies, special curricular requirements (e.g., judging trips, field trips, professional conferences), military obligation, severe weather conditions, religious holidays, and participation in official university activities such as music performances, athletic competition or debate. Absences from class for court-imposed legal obligations (e.g., jury duty or subpoena) must be excused. All of these require documentation in order to not lose a letter grade in the course. Other reasons also may be approved.

Students shall be permitted a reasonable amount of time to make up the material or activities covered in their absence.

If a student does not participate in at least one of the first two class meetings of the course, and he or she has not contacted the department to indicate his or her intent, the student can be dropped from the course. Students must not assume that they will be dropped, however. The department will notify students if they have been dropped from the course.

Lateness is disruptive. Anyone coming late (after a 5-minute grace period) on more than one occasion loses a half-letter grade for the course.

Academic Integrity
You are required to abide by the Student Honor Code. Any violation of the academic integrity expected of you will result in a minimum academic sanction of a failing grade on the assignment

Students with Disabilities
Students with disabilities requesting accommodations should first register with the Disability Resource Center (352-392-8565) by providing appropriate documentation. Once registered, students will receive an accommodation letter, which must be presented to the professor when requesting accommodation.

Help With Coping
The UF Counseling and Wellness Center is a terrific, free resource for any student who could use help managing stress or coping with life. The center, at 3190 Radio Road on campus, is open for appointments and emergency walk-ins from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday through Friday. To make an appointment or receive after-hours assistance, call 352-392-1575. You can also contact umatter@ufl.edu. The U Matter, We Care team can also help connect students to the many other helping resources including, but not limited to Victim Advocates, housing staff, and the Counseling and Wellness Center. Please remember that asking for help is a sign of strength. In case of emergency, call 9-1-1.

Course Evaluations
Students are expected to provide feedback on the quality of instruction in this course by completing online evaluations. You will be notified by email when the evaluations are open. Summary results are available to you and the public.

Student Complaint Process
Students who have complaints about any course can use the links below for information about filing a complaint:
