COURSE POLICIES:

ATTENDANCE: Attendance is crucial to the success of this class. In addition to the discussion of concepts and explanation of course materials, graded exercises and activities will periodically occur during class.

PUNCTUALITY: Arriving to class on time is important to hear announcements made at the beginning of class and to not interrupt student presentations that occur as soon as class begins.

MAKE-UP POLICY: It is the student's responsibility to advise me of any personal emergency that might affect his/her performance in the course. In the case of an emergency or an extenuating circumstance that causes you to miss class over an extended period of time, please notify me as soon as possible via e-mail, or phone. The student will be held responsible for missed class notes, handouts, and any announcements made in his/her absence.

No make-up opportunities will be offered unless a valid excuse is presented and approved in advance. Excused absences include religious holidays, medical and/or family emergencies, and participation in extracurricular university events. Documentation is required, such as a dated and signed note from a medical center (i.e. Student Health Center).

Requirements for class attendance and make-up exams, assignments, and other work in this course are consistent with university policies that can be found at:
<https://catalog.ufl.edu/ugrad/current/regulations/info/attendance.aspx>

ASSIGNMENT POLICY: All assignments are due on the dates specified in class. Assignments should be uploaded to the e-learning website. If the assignment is not uploaded by the time specified, the upload function will no longer be available. It is the student's responsibility to ensure that all files have uploaded. Please leave ample time to deal with technical issues, giving you the opportunity to upload using university computers, or to alert the instructor in advance. At the instructor's discretion, e-mailed and/or hard copy assignments will be accepted if students communicate an uploading issue well in advance of the due date.

COURSE TECHNOLOGY: It will be necessary for students to have access to a computer and the Internet outside of class for various assignments. Computers from the UF Library or lab in Weimer are able to access all of the software and programs necessary for this course.

EMAIL POLICY: Please allow 24 hours for a response to emails sent between Monday and Friday. I will do my best to reply in a timely manner, but students should not have the expectation that I will reply to questions about assignments the night before they are due. It is recommended that students make an appointment in advance to discuss questions during office hours.

GRADING POLICIES:

Grading rubrics will be discussed before all assignments/exercises, so that students have a clear understanding of how they will be graded. Students are welcome to meet with me during office hours to discuss questions or concerns regarding grading policies or their specific grades.

UF POLICIES:

UNIVERSITY POLICY ON ACCOMMODATING STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES: Students requesting accommodation for disabilities must first register with the Dean of Students Office (<http://www.dso.ufl.edu/drc/>). The Dean of Students Office will provide documentation to the student who must then provide this documentation to the instructor when requesting accommodation. You must submit this documentation prior to submitting assignments or taking the quizzes or exams. Accommodations are not retroactive, therefore, students should contact the office as soon as possible in the term for which they are seeking accommodations.

UNIVERSITY POLICY ON ACADEMIC MISCONDUCT: Academic honesty and integrity are fundamental values of the University community. Students should be sure that they understand the UF Student Honor Code at <https://sccr.dso.ufl.edu/policies/student-honor-code-student-conduct-code/>

HONOR CODE: Academic dishonesty is an important issue of concern at the University of Florida. Students who violate University rules on scholastic integrity are subject to disciplinary penalties, including the possibility of failure in the course and dismissal from the University. All individual, or group, work submitted for academic credit should be the original work of the individual, or individuals, seeking credit. Materials used to support an individual's, or group's, efforts should be appropriately cited in a bibliography or footnotes section of the work. Plagiarized work includes: work that is "lifted" or not appropriately cited. Work submitted for individual credit that is not exclusively the individual's own, or that is shared between students without disclosure that the work represented is a collaboration output between authors, are a breach of the University's Honor Code. On all work submitted for credit by students at the University of Florida, the following pledge is implied:

"On my honor, I have neither given nor received unauthorized aid in doing this assignment."

You are encouraged to study together and to discuss information and concepts covered in lecture and the sections with other students. You can give help or receive help from other students. However, this permissible cooperation should never involve one student having possession of a copy of all, or part, of work done by someone else, in the form of e-mail, an e-mail attachment file, USB drive, or hard copy. Should copying occur, both the student who copied work from another student and the student who shared the copied material will automatically receive a zero for the assignment. Penalty for violation of this Code can also be extended to include failure of the course and University disciplinary action. During quizzes and individual assignments you must do your own work. Talking, discussion, or collaboration of any kind is not permitted on assessment based assignments. This includes comparing papers, copying answers from others, or sharing work in any way.
