

MMC 1009 (119F/18231): Introduction Media and Communication Professions

Spring 2020 – <http://elearning.ufl.edu/>. Our course begins Monday, Jan. 6! Please read and study the important information below...

Each class week runs from Monday (module assignments OPEN) TO Sunday (module assignments DUE), WITH 3 days for Late Submissions, ending Wednesday. This schedule may change if assignments dictate more time to complete, so check Course ANNOUNCEMENTS often. Late Submissions will be docked (-1 to -5 points). Unless directed by the course facilitator, NO ASSIGNMENTS will be accepted via email submission. There also are no “extra credit” opportunities.

Course Facilitator: Dr. Gladys L. Cleland (DM, HDD and 1986 M.A. CJC Gator!)

Video Lecturer: Steven Johnson, UF Department of Telecommunications

Email: clelangl@jou.ufl.edu

Cellular: 315.382.8484 (Syracuse, NY – ET. Please call or text before 10 p.m. and be certain to identify yourself ☺)

Zoom Conference: By appointment

Welcome to “Introduction to Media and Communication Professions!”

The primary TWO learning objectives for this one-credit course are:

- ✓ To provide you with an introduction and foundational knowledge of the UF College of Journalism and Communications AND
- ✓ To offer discussions and supplemental “resource/reference” materials about the career options related to all areas of study in our College: Advertising, Journalism, Media and Society, Public Relations and Telecommunications.

Together, we will look at current trends in the fields of public communication, audience engagement and social networks, using the UF CJC five majors and their career paths to help you succeed in our College. In addition to a general understanding of our fields of study and their corresponding professions, you will begin to build your professional network by connecting with industry professionals near you as a part of your learning experience.

FYI-1: This is a self-directed course, which means that you must be motivated, and time manage your participation. Your facilitator does not lecture, but enhances your learning through assignments and commentary related to real world scenarios and text materials.

FYI-2: Certain submissions may require credible and legitimate outside sources, referenced in APA Style. See citefast.com for assistance in formatting. Even if an assignment appears opinion-based, you should seek resources to support your platform and write in the third person voice. I call this P-I-E [Platform, what YOU think – Investigation, supporting information of your platform – Examples (provided to add credibility to your platform and the points you are attempting to make.)]

Your Student Role includes:

- Checking course Canvas email and Announcements daily
- Obtaining external course materials as noted by the facilitator, via email, or in your course Announcements
- Completing all course readings and assignments by deadline
- Watching video lectures and taking your own notes, in addition to reading any related .pdf files or other literature URL links provided that complement these video lectures
- Participating in ALL discussions and exercises, and helping your facilitator to note any disparities in the materials (course materials are modified often and sometimes mistakes happen ☺)
- Practicing your innovative and entrepreneurial skills as a communications student (Be Resourceful!), and
- Communicating often with your professor ☺, especially well in advance when there is a medical issue. ANY technical issues should be first directed to the UF Computing HELP Desk. Secure a “Ticket Number,” then notify me via email. I hold online office hours and will announce those to you via Canvas email. I encourage you to chime in, say hello, and ask questions!

My Facilitator’s Role includes:

- ❖ Guiding your classroom success in a diplomatic, courteous, and fun environment. This is called establishing a “Social Contract,” where we set the boundaries for respectful communication interaction
- ❖ Reviewing, grading, and offering individual or group commentary on your assignments within a 10 to 14-day period. Some assignments are detailed and may take a longer time to offer feedback.
- ❖ Providing discussion prompts and questions that are substantive, backed up with citations/references, and introduce all of us to new ideas and perspectives (I want to learn from you, too!)
- ❖ Diplomatically resolving any issues that arise with assignments and other course materials
- ❖ Adhering to UF Academic and Student Policies as well as Codes of Conduct and Ethics promulgated by various Professional Communications Organizations
- ❖ Communicating often with YOU to learn about your world, your learning style, and how I may enhance your future success for Senior Projects, Internships, and Employment
- ❖ Having some fun while learning together!

My bio will be posted in the classroom soon AND I’ll be asking for yours!

- I am a highly interactive prof, who is online throughout the day and especially during the late evening hours after I walk my furbaby!
- I am happy to speak with you via telephone and Zoom Conference by appointment.
- I like to use smiley faces ☺ or :-)
- Finally, it is extremely important for you to know that I DID NOT create this class, but I am updating it along our semester journey. So, I may be discovering challenges along the way with you. Professional courtesy is expected!

Learning outcomes include enhancing YOUR ability to:

1. Identify basic principles of Advertising, Journalism, Media and Society, Public Relations and Telecommunication, and how these fields of study provide a variety of internship and career opportunities
2. Determine how to position your social networks to benefit you professionally
3. Identify where to find professional networking opportunities
4. Demonstrate how to engage professional networks and become an active participant, and
5. Participate in an asynchronous classroom forum – working individually or in small groups – to produce deadline materials, addressing the lessons assigned for the successful completion of this course. Time management is imperative 😊

Problems with access? Please contact the UF HELP Desk by email (helpdesk@ufl.edu) or by phone (352.392.4357 – option 2). You also may seek assistance at Learning-support@ufl.edu. Do not contact your facilitator until you have secured A SERVICE TICKET NUMBER.

Gator Honor Codes and Policies for Special Needs:

It is YOUR responsibility to research, read, understand and utilize the following codes and services to make each UF course experience productive, successful and enjoyable!

1. Academic Misconduct

Academic honesty and integrity are fundamental values of the University of Florida community and the community of Communication professionals. Making fact errors on a project includes, but is not limited to, plagiarism and self-plagiarism, inaccurate or fabricated information, inaccurate or undocumented statistics, misspellings of proper names, misquotes, and more. These infractions will result in a full letter grade deduction for that assignment. Please proofread and fact check your writing, sources, and information carefully! Students should be sure they read and understand the UF Student Honor Code and the College's Code for Academic Dishonesty.

>>If you need help, please ask. Online tutoring also is available<<

2. Accommodations for Students with Disabilities: Students requesting classroom accommodations must first register with the Dean of Students Office. A professional from the Dean of Students Office will provide documentation to the student, who then has the responsibility to provide that documentation to the Instructor when requesting accommodation.

3. Grading Policies: Information on current University of Florida grading policies can be found online or on campus at The Registrar's Office.

4. Instructor Evaluation...“GatorRater”: Students are highly encouraged to provide constructive feedback on the quality of instruction or facilitation in this course. These evaluations are conducted online near the end of the semester and can be accessed within your course. Students will be notified of specific times when they are open. Summary results of these assessments are also available to students through GatorRater.

>>>It's important to remember that facilitators do not always create the lectures and/or assignments, but serve as a “course resource” for your independent studies. These academic professionals should enhance your learning by responding to your requests, offering commentary, and providing positive interaction. Also, if you had an issue with your course faculty member, TA, or facilitator, you should have made every attempt to resolve it versus offering a negative evaluation at the end of your semester. Part of your student development as a UFO student is to engage in courteous, diplomatic, and collaborative conflict management.

5. Netiquette: This is our classroom “social contract.” All members of the class are expected to follow rules of common courtesy in all forms of communication but, especially, email messages, threaded discussions, and chats. Don't forget to use professionalism, too, when interacting via a telephone or Skype conversation! Please read this article BEFORE you whip off an email to your instructors or to one of your course colleagues...just sayin'!

Grading (Your guide to success!):

Your work will be evaluated according to the distribution outline below and as specified in your Canvas Classroom. Late submissions receive a reduced grade and, generally, there is no extra-credit, or make-up assignments unless you have a doctor's note, a documented emergency, or you have negotiated with your instructor ahead of time

To Emphasize>>> ALL assignments are due each week on Sunday at 11:59 p.m. Eastern Time, unless otherwise posted. Modules will be opened weekly – some may be opened early. Please note the difference between assignment DUE DATE (Sunday night) and LATE SUBMISSION/"UNTIL" DATE (Wednesday night).

You will be graded through a variety of assignments, quizzes, and a final Capstone paper.

>>>The instructor retains the right to deviate from the grade scale below, if warranted, in the student's favor<<<

Generally, the Final Course Grade composition is below (but subject to change):

Six Multiple-Choice Quizzes (10 each): 60 points

Six Discussion Board Posts (5 each): 30 points

Six Course Activities (5 each): 30 points

Final Paper: 30 points

Total possible points earned in class: 150

Grade Scale:

Please refer to the official UFO grade scale, posted in the Announcements Section of your Course Shell.

Course Schedule:

I repeat: Each class week runs from Monday (module assignments OPEN) TO Sunday (module assignments DUE), WITH 3 days for Late Submissions, ending Wednesday. Late Submissions will be docked (-1 to -5 points). Unless directed by the course facilitator, NO ASSIGNMENTS will be accepted via email submission.

- Assignments, deadlines, and other class details for all Module Weeks will be posted on Mondays at Midnight. Keep informed of any changes by checking Course Announcements and your email at least twice per day.
- Again, it is extremely important for you to know that I DID NOT create this class and I'm not the person you will see in the video lectures. I am a seasoned broadcasting professional and academic journalist, so I'll add some interesting topics along the way! Just remember, together we may discover some course design challenges. Professional courtesy and patience are appreciated!
- Finally, WATCH your deadlines! Some deadlines may change according to the content. Also, it's important to keep everyone engaged together and to help our colleagues who may be having technical challenges, which may delay their Weeks 1-2 submissions. Thanks for your professionalism!

“Go Forth and Communicate!” ~Dr. Gladys Cleland ☺
