Course Communication:

Please email me using the subject line "ADV4940" with any questions about assignments, class content, or if you just want to talk about your internship. I spent years working in advertising agencies across the country, including time working as an intern myself. I'd be happy to discuss any advertising related questions you may have. Please include as much information as possible in your email so I can provide you with an accurate response. Contacting me through Canvas is the most efficient way to communicate. I will make every effort to respond to your email within 36 hours of you sending it.

COVID-19 & Personal Health:

If you are experiencing COVID-19 symptoms, click here for CDC guidance on symptoms of coronavirus. Please use the UF Health screening system and follow the instructions on whether you are able to attend class. Click here for UF Health guidance on what to do if you have been exposed to or are experiencing Covid-19 symptoms.

Course materials will be provided to you with an excused absence, and you will be given a reasonable amount of time to make up work. Click here for more information on UF attendance policies.

COVID-19 Impact on Internship Work Location:

Given the evolving COVID-19 situation, we are encouraging remote internship work. If your internship is scheduled for in-person work, you must provide a list of appropriate workplace precautions that are being taken by your internship sponsor to help ensure a safe work environment. Our top priority is your safety. We will work with you and your sponsor to design an internship experience that is both rewarding and one that is safe. Please reach out to me if you have any question or need additional help as we navigate this process. dwindels@ufl.edu

Overview

Catalog description: Students will complete an internship in advertising or related field with supervised on-the-job training. 65 hours of work is required for each credit. Weekly progress reports, a summary report, and a supervisor's evaluation are required. (S-U)

An internship is an important part of career preparation. Your internship should be used to help you identify a career path in advertising, and to help you determine what skills you'll need to develop to be successful after graduation. An successful internship experience enables you to gain professional work experience that can be leveraged in future job interview situations, and to build your resume, LinkedIn profile, and e-portfolio.

Course Objectives

An internship is an important part of career preparation. Learning outcomes for this course include:

- Identify a potential career path in advertising or strategic communication
- Complete a structured professional development program in advertising or strategic communication
- Assess the current and potential value of professional internship experiences
- Evaluate your professional interests, strengths, and weaknesses relative to your professional internship experience and anticipated career path

Textbook

There is no required textbook for this course.

Canvas:

All course communication, announcements, assignments, and grades will be posted on Canvas. Please confirm that you have a valid and correct email address connected to your Canvas account. It is your responsibility to check Canvas regularly <https://elearning.ufl.edu>.

- UF Help Desk, available 24-7 - <http://helpdesk.ufl.edu>

Credit & Internship Hours

Students may enroll in ADV 4940 for 1-3 credit hours. Credits are earned by working a set number of documented hours at your internship. See table below for a list of credits and their corresponding hours.

Credits	Hours
1	65
2	130
3	195

Students must serve on their internships for a minimum of six consecutive weeks working a minimum of three days within each week. Students must plan their weeks around holidays (e.g., Labor Day, Thanksgiving, Spring Break, July 4th, etc.). Internships requiring students to work more than 40 hours a week will not be approved.

My Role:

My role as instructor is to identify critical issues related to the course and to help maximize the value of your professional internship experiences. Feedback is essential for you to have confidence that you are completing all material and for me to determine that you are meeting all course requirements. At all times it is expected that you will welcome and respond professionally to assessment feedback.

Course Requirements

- Weekly report submissions
During your internship, you must submit a weekly report to account for your internship activities. NOTE: Weekly reports must be turned in EVERY WEEK AND ON TIME whether you worked that week or not. If more than (3) weekly reports are submitted late, an unsatisfactory grade will be given for the semester.

Each week begins on Monday and ends on the following Sunday. Reports are due on the next Monday by 11:59 p.m. If more than (3) weekly reports are submitted late, an unsatisfactory grade will be given for the semester.

Submit your weekly reports under the “Assignments” section in Canvas. A report template is available in the “Files” section on Canvas.

Students must be responsible for fully completing required information on weekly reports. Students are also responsible for keeping copies of their reports. Students must complete required hours every week. If required hours for a reporting week are not met, hours must be made up during future weeks.

- If you do NOT work during a given week, submit a “text entry” for your Weekly Report (assignment) on Canvas for that week. Please write one of the following (3) messages for your “text entry.” This helps us keep track of your internship status throughout the semester.
 1. Internship will begin on (fill in the date).
 2. Off Week – Did not work any hours
 3. Internship completed on (fill in the date).
- Grading weekly reports

Weekly reports will be reviewed on Canvas within one week. Reports will be graded for content based on a rubric posted on Canvas. Each weekly report is worth 20 points.

Students will receive grade deductions on their weekly report if it is not professional (e.g., sloppy, written with poor or incorrect grammar, containing misspelled words) or not complete (e.g., descriptions of daily activities are vague, not specific or too brief).

Students will receive a full letter grade deduction for the semester if more than (3) weekly reports are submitted late.

- Tracking hours through weekly reports

Weekly reports will also be used to track the amount hours worked each week during the semester. A “grade” indicating the number of hours worked out of 40 maximum hours allowed will be recorded. For example, if a student works 10 hours, a “10/40” will be entered on Canvas. These “grades” will be used to calculate total hours at the end of the term and do not represent grade percentages.
- Final personal summary report submission

At the end of your internship you are responsible for the submission of your final personal summary report. This should be a 1-2 page evaluation of the internship commenting on its value to you and its potential value to future interns. An example final report is available in the “Files” section of Canvas.

This report must be submitted no later than 5:00 p.m. on the Wednesday of final examination week. For summer semesters this is typically the last Wednesday of the term.

- Final evaluation of your performance by your supervisor

You are also responsible for ensuring that your supervisor completes and submits a final evaluation on your performance for the semester

Your supervisor will be emailed a link to an evaluation form near the end of the term. Please be sure that we have your supervisor’s correct email address on file.

This report must be submitted no later than 5:00 p.m. on the Wednesday of final examination week. For summer semesters this is typically the last Wednesday of the term.

Grading & Make Up Policy:

We will follow UF Attendance Policies as it pertains to attending class, assigned work, quizzes, and exams. Unless you notify me in advance and have a documented reason for why you cannot complete an assigned element of this class in a timely manner it will not be accepted.

Homework that is not submitted by the posted due date and time will incur a 10% grade reduction for each 24-hour period that it is late, up to five days. After five days, no late homework will be accepted.

Missing a quiz, activity, or exam without permission results in a zero. Under circumstances where the student misses a quiz, activity or exam due to unanticipated reasons, students will have 2 business days (i.e., 48 weekday hours) to inform the instructor and to negotiate a make-up opportunity. In either case, valid, verifiable documentation supporting the reason for the absence is required (doctor's note, accident report).

You can access the UF Attendance Policy at:

<https://catalog.ufl.edu/ugrad/current/regulations/info/attendance.aspx>

- All final grades for the semester in ADV4940 will be calculated based on an s/u grading scheme
 - a. SATISFACTORY
 - b. UNSATSIFACTORY
 - c. INCOMPLETE.

- An “Unsatisfactory” grade will be assigned when a student fails to meet the course requirements, including:
 - a. Failure to complete the weekly reports or final internship summary in a satisfactory manner
 - b. More than (3) late weekly reports
 - c. The student’s supervisor does not submit a final evaluation of their semester performance
 - d. The student’s supervisor assigns a “poor” or “unacceptable” overall evaluation to the student’s semester performance
- An “Incomplete” grade will be assigned when a student is unable to complete the internship due to circumstances beyond the student’s control.
