Catalog Description: An overview of the nature of media audiences and their behaviors, as well as industry measurement practices and applications.

Objectives:
1) Students will be able to explain the concept of audience from both practical and theoretical perspectives;
2) Explain the dual product market of media and how this affects audience formation;
3) Understand motivations of audience behavior and how to identify audience preferences;
4) Compare and contrast the mass audience, niche audiences and market segments and their various approaches to serving these audiences, and describe how each is used by media content providers and advertisers;
5) Explain the role technology, including artificial intelligence, plays in audience development and research;
6) Interpret secondary data (e.g. audience metrics) to identify patterns and trends in media usage, and apply this information effectively and strategically
7) Demonstrate knowledge and competency with audience analysis tools and media industry-based resources
8) Analyze audience-related challenges creatively and strategically in order to successfully approach and solve industry problems.
9) Understand best practices for serving diverse audiences;
10) Understand some of the ethical implications in audience research today and ethical best practices.

Required Texts:

Also: Napoli, P. (2010). Audience Evolution. While we’ll only be reading a couple chapters of this one, it is also accessed as a free e-book via UF Libraries.

Additional readings as announced.

Recommended Texts:
Wimmer, R. & Dominick, J., Mass Communication Research, 7th ed. or later.

Other Recommended Reading: Multichannel News and Advertising Age, both of which offer free online subscriptions. Other well-known and useful trade publications include Television Week, Broadcasting and Cable, and Electronic Media. The Wall Street Journal and business sections of major papers such as the New York Times are also helpful.

Description and Evaluation of Assignments

Audience Measurement Assignment. Students will become familiar with audience measurement terminology and learn how to read and interpret audience data from an industry source. Upon completion of the assignment, they will be able to answer questions about media content performance or audience preference, be able to detect trends and patterns, and interpret the relevance and potential implications of such patterns and findings. (See Canvas Assignments section for worksheet and instructions.) This assignment is graded per individual worksheet question on the basis of whether the questions were answered correctly or incorrectly.

Practitioner Interview Assignment. Students will observe and interview someone whose job involves understanding audiences (theater, concerts, plays, media industry). Ask this professional what they need to know and do in order to be successful in understanding their audiences, what tools/techniques they use, etc. Students should schedule an interview via Zoom or Skype with an audience professional, then write up their observations based on the assignment questions. The write-up length will be 4-6 pages, double-spaced. (See Canvas Assignments section.)

Target Audience Assignment. Students will learn how to match content with relevant audience segments. In this assignment, they will become more aware of how audiences can differ demographically, psychographically, behaviorally, geographically, etc. and learn to apply various segmentation techniques to tailor content to audiences, as well as strategically match audience segments with content. Assignment write-up will be 4-6 pages, double-spaced. (See Canvas Assignments section.)

Assignments will be accessible at least one week in advance of their announced due date (syllabus dates are subject to change). Assignments are due on the date stated on the syllabus. Late assignments may be accepted within 24 hours, with a 10% penalty. Assignments submitted after this 24-hour period will not be accepted. We will also be using TurnItIn for most assignment submissions (through Canvas site). The same deadline above also applies to the TurnItIn submission.

Academic Honesty
UF students are bound by The Honor Pledge which states, “We, the members of the University of Florida community, pledge to hold ourselves and our peers to the highest standards of honor and integrity by abiding by the Honor Code. On all work submitted for credit by students at the University of Florida, the following pledge is either required or implied: “On my honor, I have neither given nor received unauthorized aid in doing this assignment.” Furthermore, you are obligated to report any condition that facilitates academic misconduct to appropriate personnel. If you have any questions or concerns, please consult with the instructor.

Familiarize yourself with the University of Florida Student Honor Code at http://www.dso.ufl.edu/sccr/process/student-conduct-honor-code/ as well as possible violations and sanctions. UF’s Academic Honesty Guidelines and Standards of Ethical Conduct (http://www.dso.ufl.edu/studentguide/studentrights.php#ethicalconduct) can also be found on the Student Conduct and Conflict Resolution portion of the Dean of Students’ web site.
You should not be at UF or plan a career in this field unless you are prepared to do your own original work. If I discover that you have been academically dishonest in this class in any way, you will be penalized, up to and including expulsion from the University.

You are responsible for knowing the definition of plagiarism and various kinds of academic dishonesty. Ignorance, i.e. “I didn’t realize that was plagiarism” is not an acceptable response, and will not excuse you from academic dishonesty violations, if discovered. While you are responsible for reading and understanding UF’s policy in its entirety, examples of academic dishonesty include:

- Using phrases or quotes from another source without proper attribution or quotation marks
  - For purposes of this class, five or more words (verbatim) from a source without proper attribution or quotation marks will be considered plagiarism.
  - Paraphrasing without proper attribution
- “Forgetting” to source material you use (same as above, intentional or not)
- Passing off others’ ideas as your own
- Turning in the same assignment or paper for two courses, i.e. “dual submission.”
- Stealing and/or copying other students’ work, whether on a test or assignment
- Bribery
- Fabrication of material

If you have any questions about plagiarism, or how to properly cite or attribute sources, please ask.
