Course Description & Prerequisites

This course will introduce students to the fundamentals of effective data-driven storytelling and communications. The students will learn how to detect and articulate the stories behind data sets and communicate data findings in visual, oral, and written contexts for various audiences and publics. The students will gain an understanding of Tableau, a data visualization tool.

Course Pre-Requisites / Co-Requisites

None

Course Delivery Mode & Time Commitment

This is a fully online course and you must log into Canvas with your gatorlink and password to access the materials and assignments. The course is organized into modules with due dates. Unless otherwise specified, each module begins on Monday at 12:00 AM, ET, and ends on Sunday at 11:59 PM, ET. The course begins with the Course Introduction Module on the home page, which will familiarize you with the course.

Time Commitment

Expect to spend between 10 to 20 hours per week, per course, watching or attending lectures, reading, working on assignments and projects, and engaging in discussions.

Course-Level Objectives

Upon successful completion of this course, students will be able to:

1. Examine data from open data portals. (CO: 1)
2. Apply key concepts in data analysis (CO:2)
3. Analyze datasets. (CO: 3)
4. Apply the principles of data visualization. (CO: 4)
5. Create data visualizations. (CO: 5)
6. Critique data visualizations. (CO: 6)
7. Explain the results of data analysis. (CO: 7)

(CO = Course-Level Objective)

Course Reserves

Course Reserves will be accessible through Canvas.

Minimum Technology Requirements & Computer Skills

Basic Computer Specifications for Canvas

- Specifications
- Reliable Web Browser: Login to Canvas and make sure your Internet browser is compatible.

Peripherals

- A backup option should be available to minimize any loss of work such as an external hard drive, a USB drive, cloud storage, etc.

Hardware

- Dependable computer.
- Computer speakers.
- Headset with microphone.
- Webcam.

Software

- Microsoft Office 365.
- UF Apps – access UF software applications from any device from any location, at any time.
- Canvas Mobile App: Download instructions for iOS device or Android device.
- Adobe Reader
- <https://ufl.zoom.us/>
- Tableau Desktop (free license available for students)

Internet Connection

- Recommended: Broadband Internet connection with a speed of 4 Mbps or higher.
- To function properly, Canvas requires a high-speed Internet connection (cable modem, DSL, satellite broadband, T1, etc.). The minimum Internet connection speed to access Canvas is a consistent 1.5 Mbps (megabits per second) or higher.
- Check your Internet speed here.

Subscriptions, Plug-Ins, and Other Tools

- Adobe Flash Player (Good until the Microsoft update December 31, 2020.)
- JAVA

MINIMUM COMPUTER AND DIGITAL INFORMATION LITERACY SKILLS REQUIREMENTS

The general and course-specific computer and digital information literacy skills you must have to succeed in the course include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Accessing the Internet.
- Using Canvas.
- Using email with attachments.
- Creating and submitting files in processing program such as Microsoft Office Tools.
- Copying and pasting functions.
- Downloading and installing software.
- Using presentation, graphics, and other programs.
- Posting and commenting in an online discussion.
- Searching the University of Florida library and websites.
- Basic familiarity with Excel and with the concept of structured data (i.e. storing data in columns and rows).

Technical Support

In the event that you have technical difficulties with your course, please contact the UF Computing Help Desk either by filling out an online request form or calling 352-392-4357 - select option 1. The Help Desk is located on the ground floor of the Hub on the UF campus.

If your technical difficulties caused you to miss a due date, you MUST report the problem to the Help Desk and then email your instructor. Include the ticket number that you are given from the Help Desk in an email to the instructor to explain the late assignment/quiz/test.

IT Support

For all Technical assistance questions please contact the UF Computing Help Desk:

Phone: 352-392-HELP (4357)

Email: helpdesk@ufl.edu

Please Note

Your instructor is not able to handle technological issues or answer questions related to computer issues. If a problem of this nature arises that causes you to miss an assignment, you must provide your Help Desk ticket number to the instructor in order to receive an extension.

Course Grading Policies

Grading Criterion, Late Assignment Policy, and Expectations for Assignments

GRADING CRITERION

Weekly Quizzes (Total 10%)

Each week, you will be required to complete a short online quiz that will be based on that week's assigned lectures and readings. Each quiz will contain three to five multiple choice and true/false questions and will have a time limit of 10 minutes. The quiz is open book but is recommended you do the quiz only after you have watched all that week's lectures and done all assigned readings. The quizzes will be due at 11:59pm Eastern time on the Sunday of each weekly module.

Discussion Boards (Total 25%)

All students will be expected to participate each week in the online discussion boards. Each week's discussion question or topic will be posted on Canvas no later than the Monday of each weekly module (often it will be available well before that).

Data Plan (Total 10%)

Find a dataset that will serve as the basis for the other assignments in this course (Narrated PowerPoint Slide Deck, Data Memo and Interactive Data Story). This dataset can be located on an open data portal or can be a dataset that you have access to through your work. The dataset can be on any topic you choose — ideally, pick one that's about something you're interested in and/or is about where you live.

Two charts, a "lead" and an "elevator pitch" (Total 10%)

This assignment will show the results of your initial analysis of your dataset. It should include:

1. A single sentence identifying the most interesting thing you've discovered in your dataset, much like the "lead" of a news story. This "lead" should intrigue the reader and make them want to learn more.

2. Two static charts created using Tableau that illustrate key insights you've discovered in your data. At least one of your two charts should support the statement made in your lead sentence.
3. To accompany the charts and lead sentence, an "elevator pitch" of 30-45 seconds in which you are seen on camera explaining why the insights you've discovered are worth paying attention to. For your elevator pitch, there should be nothing on camera except yourself (i.e. no slides, no charts). You should wear business appropriate clothing (i.e. no sweatpants, shorts or jeans) and be seated in an office-style setting or standing up (i.e. no lounging on the couch).

Narrated PowerPoint Slide Deck (Total 15%)

Using Zoom, you will record a video presentation between 8 and 12 minutes long that explains some of the key findings of your data analysis.

Data Memo – Written Report (Total 15%)

You will write a 1,500- to 2,000-word "Data Memo" outlining the key findings of your data analysis as well as clear recommendations for how your intended audience should respond to your findings.

Interactive Data Story (Total 15%)

Using Tableau, you will create a "Data Story" that uses maps and charts — some interactive, some not — to explain the results of your data analysis and anticipates the user's questions about your data.

Your grade will be calculated based on the following:

Assignments/Assessments	Points	Weight (%)

The only passing grades for graduate students are A, A-, B+, B, B-, C+, C, and S. Grades of B-, C+ or C count toward a graduate degree if an equal number of credits in courses numbered 5000 or higher have been earned with grades of B+, A- and A, respectively. Grade points are not given for S and U grades; S and U grades are not used to calculate grade point averages. All letter-graded courses eligible to count toward the graduate degree, except 1000- and 2000-level courses, are used to calculate the cumulative grade-point average. Letter grades of C-, D+, D, D- or E are not considered passing at the graduate level, although the grade points associated with these letter grades are included in grade point average calculations. See the UF grading policy for more information.

LATE ASSIGNMENT POLICY

Late assignments will not be accepted unless it is a University excused absence as stated in the attendance policies. No late work will be accepted for final projects or work due in the final week of class due to the university grading deadlines. If potential issue arise concerning submitting final work, students should contact their instructors before deadlines to discuss the possibility of an Incomplete Grade Contract.

1. Late Assignment Grade Reductions
 - a. 0-24 Hours Late: 10% reduction in grade.
 - b. Over 24 Hours (24 hours and 1 minute) to 7 Calendar Days Late: 20% reduction in grade.
 - c. After the 7th Calendar Day: Work will not be accepted.
2. Late Discussions will not be accepted.

EXPECTATIONS FOR ASSIGNMENTS

- Missed Live Lectures
In courses where there are live weekly or bi-weekly lectures, a recording of the lecture will be provided if you cannot attend. You will be responsible to "make-up" the missed lecture by viewing the recorded lecture and completing a required assignment.
- Missed Live Virtual Meetings
In courses where there are live virtual meetings (mandatory or optional), a recording of the meeting will be provided if you cannot attend. You will be responsible to view the recorded meetings. In missed mandatory meetings, the instructor may require that you complete an assignment.
- Course Evaluation
Students are expected to provide professional and respectful feedback on the quality of instruction in this course by completing course evaluations online via GatorEvals. Guidance on how to give feedback in a professional and respectful manner is available at <https://gatorevals.aa.ufl.edu/students/>. Students will be notified when the evaluation period opens, and can complete evaluations through the email they receive from GatorEvals, in their Canvas course menu under GatorEvals, or via <https://ufl.bluera.com/ufl/>. Summaries of course evaluation results are available to students at <https://gatorevals.aa.ufl.edu/public-results/>.

Accessibility Policy

Students requiring reasonable access to services and resources required by the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, and other applicable federal and state regulations, please access UF Accessibility for all options available to you. Once registered, students will receive an accommodation letter which must be presented to the instructor when requesting accommodations. Please register early!

Communication Policy

EXPECTATIONS FOR STUDENTS

Announcements You are responsible for reading all announcements posted in the courseroom each time you log in.

Email

You are responsible for reading all your course email and responding in a timely manner (within 24 hours).

Video Conferencing

You are responsible for attending course video conferencing meetings. If you cannot attend the video conferencing meeting, please advise the instructor and/or your team at least 24 hours in advance (exceptions can be made for legitimate emergencies). You are expected to demonstrate netiquette and etiquette communication expectations.

Course-Related Questions

Post course-related questions to the "General Questions" discussion board. This allows other participants with the same question to benefit from the responses. Also, make sure you review this forum prior to posting a question. Someone may have already asked and answered the question in previous posts.

INSTRUCTOR'S PLAN FOR CLASSROOM RESPONSE TIME AND FEEDBACK

Email Policy

Except for weekends, holidays, and University breaks, the instructor will typically respond to emails within 48 hours. You should ask course-related questions in the "General Questions" discussion board. If you have questions of a personal nature, please message the instructor through Canvas (the instructor will get these messages quicker than if you email him at his UF email address).

Assignment Feedback Policy

The instructor will provide feedback on submitted assignments within one week of the submission date. Some assignments may require a longer review period, which the instructor will communicate to you.

Course-Related Questions Policy

Except weekends and holidays, the instructor will generally answer questions within 48 hours.

Course Communication: If your question is of a general nature that you think fellow students may also have, please ask your question in the General Questions discussion forum — that way your fellow students can benefit from the answer. If your question is of a personal nature, please email me. Sending me a message through the "Inbox" feature in Canvas is usually a quicker way to get a hold of me than emailing me on my UF email address, as I check Canvas more regularly. Also, please note that while I usually respond to messages within 24 hours, I do not typically check messages on the weekends. If you have a question about an upcoming assignment, please get it in before Friday afternoon.

Video Conferencing

The instructor will provide any information on required video conferencing within the courseroom.

Electronic Communication Policy

In addition to the University's policy, please consider the following:

- Privacy, confidentiality, and security in all electronic communications. See Information Security.
- All electronic communication resources must be used for the course and in alignment with to the CJC Online and University mission. See the Acceptable Use Policy.
- Prohibited use of false identity, false identity pseudonyms, or anonymous (sender's name or electronic identification is hidden).
- Prohibited online access without consent.
- Prohibited disruption of services including introducing computer contaminants (viruses). □ Prohibited harassment of any kind.

Please see UF's Information Technology policies for additional information.

Select CJC and University Policies and Guidelines

Academic Integrity Policy

UF students are bound by The Honor Pledge which states, “We, the members of the University of Florida community, pledge to hold ourselves and our peers to the highest standards of honor and integrity by abiding by the Honor Code.” The Student Honor Code, Violation of the Student Honor Code, specifies a number of behaviors that are in violation of this code and the possible sanctions. Furthermore, you are obligated to report any condition that facilitates academic misconduct to the appropriate personnel. If you have any questions or concerns, please consult with the instructor or TA’s in this class.

Netiquette

Casual style of communication is commonly found in the online environment and students are sometimes tempted to relax their grammar, word choice, syntax (arrangement of words to create well-formed sentences), writing mechanics (capitalization, punctuation, and spelling), and/or professionalism. Keep in mind when communicating with others to be courteous, civil, respectful, and professional. Please remember that you are adult students and professionals—your communication must be appropriate.

Online Attendance Policy

Since the course is online, you should access your course at least four times per week to ensure you do not miss pertinent postings, messages, or announcements. It is imperative that you meet course deadlines and stay active in discussion boards, group projects, etc. If you are experiencing a major illness, absences due to University duties, or other large-scale issues, contact the instructor immediately.

Students are responsible for meeting all academic objectives as defined by the instructor. In general, acceptable reasons for absences include illness, serious family emergencies, special curricular requirements, military obligation, severe weather conditions, religious holidays, and participation in official University activities. Absences from class for court-imposed legal obligations (e.g., jury duty or subpoena) must be excused. Excused absences must be consistent with university policies in the Graduate Catalog and require appropriate documentation. For additional information, see the attendance policies.

Plagiarism

Plagiarism is unacceptable; especially, in the academic communities. All academic work must be an original work of your own thought, research, or self-expression. Plagiarism includes, but is not limited to, prohibited collaboration, consultation, submission of academic work that has been purchased or obtained (see the UF Policy: Student Conduct Violation). Remember that plagiarism is not acceptable in any of your work including all discussion board posts, journal entries, wikis, and other written and oral presentation assignments. Always cite your sources!

Software Use

All faculty, staff, and students of the University are required and expected to obey the laws and legal agreements governing software use. Failure to do so can lead to monetary damages and/or criminal penalties for the individual violator. Because such violations are also against University policies and rules, disciplinary action will be taken as appropriate. We, the members of the University of Florida community, pledge to uphold ourselves and our peers to the highest standards of honesty and integrity.

Notification to Students of FERPA Rights

There are federal laws (FERPA) protecting your privacy with regards to grades earned in courses and on individual assignments.

Student Guidelines for Courseroom Challenges

Student with questions regarding course content such as assignments, assessments, instructional materials, lectures, meetings, course objectives, course module objectives, or other areas of the course, please adhere to the following guidelines:

1. You should first approach the faculty member who is teaching the course to ask for clarifications regarding the course assignments, assessments, materials, lectures, meetings, etc.
 - i) In the Course Orientation Module, you will find the Frequently Asked Questions (FAQ) page which has been placed there for the purpose of addressing course questions, issues, and challenges.
 - ii) In the Course Orientation Module Welcome page, under Meet your Instructor, you find the faculty members email and directions for requesting an appointment where you can address any concerns and/or questions.
2. If after meeting with the faculty member teaching the course you are still not clear on the course assignments, assessments, materials, lectures, meetings, etc., then the next step would be to contact online advising (onlineadvising@jou.ufl.edu) for additional guidance.

Video Conferencing Etiquette

Video conferencing is an excellent tool to interface with your peers and instructor(s) and there are also netiquette expectations to ensure that all participants are respected and treated with civility. Please make sure that you follow all of the netiquette and etiquette expectations including the following:

1. Be punctual and courteous.
2. Position your camera at eye level with good lighting.
3. Show respect and professionalism by dressing business casual or business professional.
4. No smoking or drinking alcoholic drinks.
5. Make sure your background is in a proper setting with minimal distractions.
6. Mute your microphone when you are not speaking.

Writing Style

In order to meet the academic rigor and standards of a graduate program, all students are required to use the Publication Manual of the American Psychological Association (APA) 7th Edition style in their courses. The APA 7th Edition Manual has a plethora of guidelines that includes scholarly writing, publishing principles, elements and format for your papers, writing style and grammar, bias-free language guidelines, mechanics of style, intext citing and references, etc. For additional information on notable changes, see changes between APA 6th Edition and APA 7th Edition.
