Course Grading Policies

Grading Criterion, Late Assignment Policy, and Expectations for Assignments

GRADING CRITERION

Discussions & Assignments (20%)

Students will complete assignments to reinforce information taught during the live lectures. These assignments are less intense than projects and focus more on execution with some design. Students will have at least five (5) days to complete each assignment, unless otherwise noted ahead of time.

Students will complete discussions to provide peer review of fellow student projects and also to discuss topics of interest relating to each module in the course.

Group Work Assignments (10%)

Students will complete two group work assignments to practice coding in a collaborative environment, an important skill for any web designer. One group work assignment will be completed during class time (1 lecture period) with the second assignment requiring collaboration outside of the classroom.

Projects (70%)

There will be three (3) major projects throughout the semester. Each project will have specific requirements catering to the information taught during live lectures and may also require outside research. Students will have 2-4 weeks to complete each project.

- Project 1 – HTML 5 Responsive Site Part 1 (Site #1)
- Project 2 – HTML 5 Responsive Site Part 2 (Site #1)
- Project 3 – Website for a Real-Life Client

- Part 1 – Branding & Planning Stage
- Part 2 – Coded Website

Expectations for Writing Assignments: Writing Style

In order to meet the academic rigor and standards of a graduate program, all students are required to use the Publication Manual of the American Psychological Association (APA) 7th Edition style in their courses. The APA 7th Edition Manual has a plethora of guidelines that includes scholarly writing, publishing principles, elements and format for your papers, writing style and grammar, bias-free language guidelines, mechanics of style, intext citing and references, etc. For additional information on notable changes, see changes between APA 6th Edition and APA 7th Edition.

Your grade will be calculated based on the following:

Assignments/Assessments	Points	Weight (%)
Course Orientation: These assignments are required; however, they not count towards the final grade. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Student Introduction • Course Evaluation 	0	0%
8 Assignments / Discussions <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Worth up to 100 points each. 	800	20%

C+	76.5-79.4%
C	72.5-76.4%
C-	69.5-72.4%
D+	66.5-69.4%
D	62.5-66.4%
D-	59.5-62.4%
E	0 – 59.4%

The only passing grades for graduate students are A, A-, B+, B, B-, C+, C, and S. Grades of B-, C+ or C count toward a graduate degree if an equal number of credits in courses numbered 5000 or higher have been earned with grades of B+, A- and A, respectively. Grade points are not given for S and U grades; S and U grades are not used to calculate grade point averages. All letter-graded courses eligible to count toward the graduate degree, except 1000- and 2000-level courses, are used to calculate the cumulative grade-point average. Letter grades of C-, D+, D, D- or E are not considered passing at the graduate level, although the grade points associated with these letter grades are included in grade point average calculations. See the UF grading policy for more information.

LATE ASSIGNMENT POLICY

Late assignments will not be accepted unless it is a University excused absence as stated in the attendance policies. No late work will be accepted for final projects or work due in the final week of class due to the university grading deadlines. If potential issues arise concerning submitting final work, students should contact their instructors before deadlines to discuss the possibility of an Incomplete Grade Contract.

1. Late Assignment Grade Reductions
 - a. 0-24 Hours Late: 10% reduction in grade.
 - b. Over 24 Hours (24 hours and 1 minute) to 7 Calendar Days Late: 20% reduction in grade.
 - c. After the 7th Calendar Day: Work will not be accepted.
2. Late Discussions will not be accepted.

EXPECTATIONS FOR ASSIGNMENTS

- Missed Live Lectures

In courses where there are live weekly or bi-weekly lectures, a recording of the lecture will be provided if you cannot attend. You will be responsible to "make-up" the missed lecture by viewing the recorded lecture and completing a required assignment. This assignment is a lecture summary where you will take notes on the lecture and provide your opinions / feedback / questions on the topics. If a live presentation night is missed, you will summarize your feedback for your classmates in your summary assignment. Summaries should be submitted via email to the Instructor's UF email no more than one week (7 days) after the recording date. If the Summary Submission is not submitted for a missed lecture/presentation night, the student will be marked absent for the class which will reduce the student's attendance grade.

Summary Submissions must be submitted via a Word Document with the proper format provided in Canvas. Be sure to save Summary Submissions as:

- [Date (MM/DD/YY)]_SummarySubmission_[LastnameFirstname].docx

- Missed Live Virtual Meetings

In courses where there are live virtual meetings (mandatory or optional), a recording of the meeting will be provided if you cannot attend. You will be responsible to view the recorded meetings. In missed mandatory meetings, the instructor may require that you complete an assignment.

Some projects may be presented during live lectures. If a student has a situation that will prevent them from presenting live in class, he or she must contact the instructor ahead of time. If approved by the instructor, the student will be required to record a presentation ahead of time and upload the video to YouTube, Vimeo or a similar service. The student will then provide his or her presentation URL to the instructor via UF email.

- Course Evaluation

Students are expected to provide professional and respectful feedback on the quality of instruction in this course by completing course evaluations online via GatorEvals. Guidance on how to give feedback in a professional and respectful manner is available at <https://gatorevals.aa.ufl.edu/students/>. Students will be notified when the evaluation period opens, and can complete evaluations through the email they receive from GatorEvals, in their Canvas course menu under GatorEvals, or via <https://ufl.bluera.com/ufl/>. Summaries of course evaluation results are available to students at <https://gatorevals.aa.ufl.edu/public-results/>.

Accessibility Policy

Students requiring reasonable access to services and resources required by the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, and other applicable federal and state regulations, please access UF Accessibility for all options available to you. Once registered, students will receive an accommodation letter which must be presented to the instructor when requesting accommodations. Please register early!

Students who participate with their camera engaged or utilize a profile image are agreeing to have their video or image recorded. If you are unwilling to consent to have your profile or video image recorded, be sure to keep your camera off and do not use a profile image. Likewise, students who un-mute during class and participate orally are agreeing to have their voices recorded. If you are not willing to consent to have your voice recorded during class, you will need to keep your mute button activated and communicate exclusively using the "chat" feature, which allows students to type questions and comments live.

Please see UF's Information Technology policies for additional information.

Select CJC and University Policies and Guidelines

Academic Integrity Policy

UF students are bound by The Honor Pledge which states, “We, the members of the University of Florida community, pledge to hold ourselves and our peers to the highest standards of honor and integrity by abiding by the Honor Code.” The Student Honor Code, Violation of the Student Honor Code, specifies a number of behaviors that are in violation of this code and the possible sanctions. Furthermore, you are obligated to report any condition that facilitates academic misconduct to the appropriate personnel. If you have any questions or concerns, please consult with the instructor or TA’s in this class.

Netiquette

Casual style of communication is commonly found in the online environment and students are sometimes tempted to relax their grammar, word choice, syntax (arrangement of words to create well-formed sentences), writing mechanics (capitalization, punctuation, and spelling), and/or professionalism. Keep in mind when communicating with others to be courteous, civil, respectful, and professional. Please remember that you are adult students and professionals—your communication must be appropriate.

Online Attendance Policy

Since the course is online, you should access your course at least four times per week to ensure you do not miss pertinent postings, messages, or announcements. It is imperative that you meet course deadlines and stay active in discussion boards, group projects, etc. If you are experiencing a major illness, absences due to University duties, or other large-scale issues, contact the instructor immediately.

Students are responsible for meeting all academic objectives as defined by the instructor. In general, acceptable reasons for absences include illness, serious family emergencies, special curricular requirements, military obligation, severe weather conditions, religious holidays, and participation in official University activities. Absences from class for court-imposed legal obligations (e.g., jury duty or subpoena) must be excused. Excused absences must be consistent with university policies in the Graduate Catalog and require appropriate documentation. For additional information, see the attendance policies.

Plagiarism

Plagiarism is unacceptable; especially, in the academic communities. All academic work must be an original work of your own thought, research, or self-expression. Plagiarism includes, but is not limited to, prohibited collaboration, consultation, submission of academic work that has been purchased or obtained (see the UF Policy: Student Conduct Violation). Remember that plagiarism is not acceptable in any of your work including all discussion board posts, journal entries, wikis, and other written and oral presentation assignments. Always cite your sources!

Software Use

All faculty, staff, and students of the University are required and expected to obey the laws and legal agreements governing software use. Failure to do so can lead to monetary damages and/or criminal penalties for the individual violator. Because such violations are also against University policies and rules, disciplinary action will be taken as appropriate. We, the members of the University of Florida community, pledge to uphold ourselves and our peers to the highest standards of honesty and integrity.

Notification to Students of FERPA Rights

There are federal laws (FERPA) protecting your privacy with regards to grades earned in courses and on individual assignments.
