Course Grading Policies

Grading Criterion, Late Assignment Policy, and Expectations for Assignments

GRADING CRITERION

Discussion Boards (25%)

Your initial post must be a substantive and scholarly submission. You must reply to at least two other students' posts with a substantive and scholarly response. A substantive response adds scholarly value to the discussion by bringing new ideas, research, evidence, etc. to the conversation. Responses such as "I agree," "Ditto," etc., are not acceptable replies and the rules of Netiquette must be followed. Replies are not texts with friends and proper rules of writing must be applied including citations and references (do not plagiarize).

All initial posts for each module discussion board must be submitted by Fridays at 11:59 PM, ET, so your peers have time to respond to your initial post. Responses to peers are due by Sundays at 11:59 PM, ET. To view the grading criteria rubric for the discussions in the course room, click the Settings icon (the 3 dots on the top-right corner) and select the Show Rubric button.

Weekly Assignments (40%)

You will be required to complete a weekly homework assignment that demonstrates your understanding of the course concepts. The homework assignments will allow you to practice skills such as graphic design, copywriting, and communication planning. Weekly assignments are due Mondays at 11:59 p.m. ET unless otherwise noted in the Canvas courseroom. Assignment instructions and rubrics are available in the Canvas courseroom.

Midterm Project (15%)

The purpose of the Midterm Project is to help you critically think about the course learning materials from the first half of the semester as well as personal experiences, and synthesize the information to develop communication plan ideas for three brands. Make sure that you use proper grammar, word choice, syntax (arrangement of words to create well-formed sentences), and writing mechanics (capitalization, punctuation, and spelling) in your project as well as proper citing and referencing of all your sources. Assignment instructions and rubrics are available in the Canvas courseroom.

Final Project (15%)

The purpose of the Final Project is to help you critically think about the course learning materials from the entire semester as well as personal experiences, and synthesize the information to develop communication plan ideas for one brand. The Final Project will also have a presentation component where students will pitch their ideas to their classmates. Make sure that you use proper grammar, word choice, syntax (arrangement of words to create well-formed sentences), and writing mechanics (capitalization, punctuation, and spelling) in your project as well as proper citing and referencing of all your sources. Assignment instructions and rubrics are available in the Canvas courseroom.

Facebook Participation (5%)

Students are expected to post their weekly assignments in the course Facebook Group and post comments on their classmates’ submissions. The Facebook Group is also a great place to share current social media news, successful ad campaign case studies, and other material relevant to the course. Participation will be evaluated at the end of the semester.

Expectations for Writing Assignments: Writing Style

In order to meet the academic rigor and standards of a graduate program, all students are required to use the Publication Manual of the American Psychological Association (APA) 7th Edition style in their courses. The APA 7th Edition Manual has a plethora of guidelines that includes scholarly writing, publishing principles, elements and format for your papers, writing style and grammar, bias-free language guidelines, mechanics of style, intext citing and references, etc. For additional information on notable changes, see changes between APA 6th Edition and APA 7th Edition.

Your grade will be calculated based on the following:

Assignments/Assessments	Points	Weight (%)
Course Orientation: These assignments are required; however, they not count towards the final grade. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Student Introduction • Course Evaluation 	0	0%
12 Discussions <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Worth up to 25 points each. 	300	25%

Participation in Facebook Group	60	5%

• Worth up to 60 points.
TOTAL	1200	100%

Grade	Percentage

A-	89.5-92.4%
B+	86.5-89.4%
B	82.5-86.4%
B-	79.5-82.4%
C+	76.5-79.4%

D+	66.5-69.4%
D	62.5-66.4%
D-	59.5-62.4%
E	0 – 59.4%

The only passing grades for graduate students are A, A-, B+, B, B-, C+, C, and S. Grades of B-, C+ or C count toward a graduate degree if an equal number of credits in courses numbered 5000 or higher have been earned with grades of B+, A- and A, respectively. Grade points are not given for S and U grades; S and U grades are not used to calculate grade point averages. All letter-graded courses eligible to count toward the graduate degree, except 1000- and 2000-level courses, are used to calculate the cumulative grade-point average. Letter grades of C-, D+, D, D- or E are not considered passing at the graduate level, although the grade points associated with these letter grades are included in grade point average calculations. See the UF grading policy for more information.

LATE ASSIGNMENT POLICY

Late assignments will not be accepted unless it is a University excused absence as stated in the attendance policies. No late work will be accepted for final projects or work due in the final week of class due to the university grading deadlines. If potential issues arise concerning submitting final work, students should contact their instructors before deadlines to discuss the possibility of an Incomplete Grade Contract.

1. Late Assignment Grade Reductions
 - a. 0-24 Hours Late: 10% reduction in grade.
 - b. Over 24 Hours (24 hours and 1 minute) to 7 Calendar Days Late: 20% reduction in grade.
 - c. After the 7th Calendar Day: Work will not be accepted.
2. Late Discussions will not be accepted.

If you are unwilling to consent to have your profile or video image recorded, be sure to keep your camera off and do not use a profile image. Likewise, students who un-mute during class and participate orally are agreeing to have their voices recorded. If you are not willing to consent to have your voice recorded during class, you will need to keep your mute button activated and communicate exclusively using the "chat" feature, which allows students to type questions and comments live.

Please see UF's Information Technology policies for additional information.

Select CJC and University Policies and Guidelines

Academic Integrity Policy

UF students are bound by The Honor Pledge which states, "We, the members of the University of Florida community, pledge to hold ourselves and our peers to the highest standards of honor and integrity by abiding by the Honor Code." The Student Honor Code, Violation of the Student Honor Code, specifies a number of behaviors that are in violation of this code and the possible sanctions. Furthermore, you are obligated to report any condition that facilitates academic misconduct to the appropriate personnel. If you have any questions or concerns, please consult with the instructor or TA's in this class.

Netiquette

Casual style of communication is commonly found in the online environment and students are sometimes tempted to relax their grammar, word choice, syntax (arrangement of words to create well-formed sentences), writing mechanics (capitalization, punctuation, and spelling), and/or professionalism. Keep in mind when communicating with others to be courteous, civil, respectful, and professional. Please remember that you are adult students and professionals—your communication must be appropriate.

Online Attendance Policy

Since the course is online, you should access your course at least four times per week to ensure you do not miss pertinent postings, messages, or announcements. It is imperative that you meet course deadlines and stay active in discussion boards, group projects, etc. If you are experiencing a major illness, absences due to University duties, or other large-scale issues, contact the instructor immediately.

Students are responsible for meeting all academic objectives as defined by the instructor. In general, acceptable reasons for absences include illness, serious family emergencies, special curricular requirements, military obligation, severe weather conditions, religious holidays, and participation in official University activities. Absences from class for court-imposed legal obligations (e.g., jury duty or subpoena) must be excused. Excused absences must be consistent with university policies in the Graduate Catalog and require appropriate documentation. For additional information, see the attendance policies.

Plagiarism

Plagiarism is unacceptable; especially, in the academic communities. All academic work must be an original work of your own thought, research, or self-expression. Plagiarism includes, but is not limited to, prohibited collaboration, consultation, submission of academic work that has been purchased or obtained (see the UF Policy: Student Conduct Violation). Remember that plagiarism is not acceptable in any of your work including all discussion board posts, journal entries, wikis, and other written and oral presentation assignments. Always cite your sources!

Software Use

All faculty, staff, and students of the University are required and expected to obey the laws and legal agreements governing software use. Failure to do so can lead to monetary damages and/or criminal penalties for the individual violator. Because such violations are also against University policies and rules, disciplinary action will be taken as appropriate. We, the members of the University of Florida community, pledge to uphold ourselves and our peers to the highest standards of honesty and integrity.

Notification to Students of FERPA Rights

There are federal laws (FERPA) protecting your privacy with regards to grades earned in courses and on individual assignments.
