Course Grading Policies

Grading Criterion, Late Assignment Policy, and Expectations for Assignments

GRADING CRITERION (Revise topics as needed.)

Attendance (Total 11%)

Participation (Total 11%)

For attendance and participation, you must either be present at the live lecture sessions or turn in a lecture summary by the end of the week's module, Sunday at 11:59 pm, following the recorded lecture. On weeks where we do not have a Zoom meeting (the independent work weeks), you will be asked to submit a designated assignment, and this will count as your attendance and participation for that class.

Live Zoom classes: May 13, May, 27, June 10, July 1, July 15, July 29

Independent work/production: May 20, June 3, June 17, July 8, July 22

Please note we do not have class on June 24 because of summer break week.

Initial Brainstorm (Total 6%) due 5/27

For 3 separate podcast ideas:

- Choose a potential name
- fill out the Audience identification worksheet
- Fill out a Focusing In worksheet

Weekly Podcast Listens (Total 11%), due every Sunday at 11:59 pm

Each week, you'll listen to one podcast of your choice and write a short reflection on what you noticed. You can consider: what works? What doesn't? What drew you in or pushed you away? Who is the intended audience for this? What did the host do well, or not? This will be posted in the Discussion Post section for each week. Each week's discussion will open on Monday at 12 am and close the following Sunday at 11:59 pm, as per the Module schedule.

Podcast Logo Design (Total 5%), due 6/3

Podcast Intro & Outro Production (Total 5%), due 6/10

Mid-term project (Total 18%), due 6/17

One podcast episode on your chosen topic. This should be based off of the early podcast brainstorming assignment that was due Class #3. Requirements:

- This must be based on an interview that you conduct with another person, versus focused on your observations alone, a narrative product, etc.
- It must be at least 15 minutes long
- You must transcribe it.
- This episode does NOT need to be polished and have intro, music, and an outro, unless you'd like to try your hand at that.

Podcast Episode Show Notes (Total 5%), due 7/15

Final project (Total 28%), due 7/29

PART 1: One fully polished well-crafted, start-to-finish episode, based on an interview (vs narrative style, etc.). It can be on any topic - a continuation of the first round of podcasts you did, or an exploration of a different style or topic - but I would like for it to be interview-based to make sure you are getting practice in that craft. This should also include a full transcription of the episode so that you can learn from that perspective as well.

PART 2: I also want you each to either write or record a reflection on the course overall. There's no length requirement because you're graduate school students and have high standards to begin with, but spend some meaningful time on it and really take a moment to see where you landed. I'd like for you to focus on:

- what the most challenging and/or surprising aspect of the course was for you
- what the most rewarding aspect was
- who your preferred/most enjoyed guest lecturer was (TBD) and why
- how you'll use what you learned in the course, moving forward
- anything you'd like to give me as feedback that will help this course the next time around.

Fully polished episode (intro/outro, music, logo, edited for sound quality): 12%

Full transcription: 6%

Self-eval/class evaluation: 10%

Expectations for Writing Assignments: Writing Style

In order to meet the academic rigor and standards of a graduate program, all students are required to use the Publication Manual of the American Psychological Association (APA) 7th Edition style in their courses. The APA 7th Edition Manual has a plethora of guidelines that includes scholarly writing, publishing principles, elements and format for your papers, writing style and grammar, bias-free language guidelines, mechanics of style, intext citing and references, etc. For additional information on notable changes, see changes between APA 6th Edition and APA 7th Edition.

Your grade will be calculated based on the following:

Assignments/Assessments	Points	Weight (%)

The only passing grades for graduate students are A, A-, B+, B, B-, C+, C, and S. Grades of B-, C+ or C count toward a graduate degree if an equal number of credits in courses numbered 5000 or higher have been earned with grades of B+, A- and A, respectively. Grade points are not given for S and U grades; S and U grades are not used to calculate grade point averages. All letter-graded courses eligible to count toward the graduate degree, except 1000- and 2000-level courses, are used to calculate the cumulative grade-point average. Letter grades of C-, D+, D, D- or E are not considered passing at the graduate level, although the grade points associated with these letter grades are included in grade point average calculations. See the UF grading policy for more information.

LATE ASSIGNMENT POLICY

Late assignments will not be accepted unless it is a University excused absence as stated in the attendance policies. No late work will be accepted for final projects or work due in the final week of class due to the university grading deadlines. If potential issues arise concerning submitting final work, students should contact their instructors before deadlines to discuss the possibility of an Incomplete Grade Contract.

1. Late Assignment Grade Reductions
 - a. 0-24 Hours Late: 10% reduction in grade.
 - b. Over 24 Hours (24 hours and 1 minute) to 7 Calendar Days Late: 20% reduction in grade.
 - c. After the 7th Calendar Day: Work will not be accepted.
2. Late Discussions will not be accepted.

EXPECTATIONS FOR ASSIGNMENTS

- Missed Live Live Virtual Meetings (Optional)

In courses where there are live weekly or bi-weekly lectures, a recording of the lecture will be provided if you cannot attend. You will be responsible to "make-up" the missed lecture by viewing the recorded lecture and completing a required assignment, which is a written synopsis. These will be due by Sunday at 11:59pm, following the recording of the live class.

- Independent study/production classes

On weeks where we do not have a Zoom meeting (the independent work weeks), you will be asked to submit a designated assignment, and this will count as your attendance and participation for that class.

Live Zoom classes: May 13, May, 27, June 10, July 1, July 15, July 29

Independent work/production: May 20, June 3, June 17, July 8, July 22

Please note we do not have class on June 24 because of summer break week.

- Course Evaluation

Students are expected to provide professional and respectful feedback on the quality of instruction in this course by completing course evaluations online via GatorEvals. Guidance on how to give feedback in a professional and respectful manner is available at <https://gatorevals.aa.ufl.edu/students/>. Students will be notified when the evaluation period opens, and can complete evaluations through the email they receive from GatorEvals, in their Canvas course menu under GatorEvals, or via <https://ufl.bluera.com/ufl/>. Select CJC and University Policies and Guidelines

Academic Integrity Policy

UF students are bound by The Honor Pledge which states, "We, the members of the University of Florida community, pledge to hold ourselves and our peers to the highest standards of honor and integrity by abiding by the Honor Code." The Student Honor Code, Violation of the Student Honor Code, specifies a number of behaviors that are in violation of this code and the possible sanctions. Furthermore, you are obligated to report any condition that facilitates academic misconduct to the appropriate personnel. If you have any questions or concerns, please consult with the instructor or TA's in this class.

Netiquette

Casual style of communication is commonly found in the online environment and students are sometimes tempted to relax their grammar, word choice, syntax (arrangement of words to create well-formed sentences), writing mechanics (capitalization, punctuation, and spelling), and/or professionalism. Keep in mind when communicating with others to be courteous, civil, respectful, and professional. Please remember that you are adult students and professionals—your communication must be appropriate.

Online Attendance Policy

Since the course is online, you should access your course at least four times per week to ensure you do not miss pertinent postings, messages, or announcements. It is imperative that you meet course deadlines and stay active in discussion boards, group projects, etc. If you are experiencing a major illness, absences due to University duties, or other large-scale issues, contact the instructor immediately.

Students are responsible for meeting all academic objectives as defined by the instructor. In general, acceptable reasons for absences include illness, serious family emergencies, special curricular requirements, military obligation, severe weather conditions, religious holidays, and participation in official University activities. Absences from class for court-imposed legal obligations (e.g., jury duty or subpoena) must be excused. Excused absences must be consistent with university policies in the Graduate Catalog and require appropriate documentation. For additional information, see the attendance policies.

Plagiarism

Plagiarism is unacceptable; especially, in the academic communities. All academic work must be an original work of your own thought, research, or self-expression. Plagiarism includes, but is not limited to, prohibited collaboration, consultation, submission of academic work that has been purchased or obtained (see the UF Policy: Student Conduct Violation). Remember that plagiarism is not acceptable in any of your work including all discussion board posts, journal entries, wikis, and other written and oral presentation assignments. Always cite your sources!

Software Use

All faculty, staff, and students of the University are required and expected to obey the laws and legal agreements governing software use. Failure to do so can lead to monetary damages and/or criminal penalties for the individual violator. Because such violations are also against University policies and rules, disciplinary action will be taken as appropriate. We, the members of the University of Florida community, pledge to uphold ourselves and our peers to the highest standards of honesty and integrity.

Notification to Students of FERPA Rights

There are federal laws (FERPA) protecting your privacy with regards to grades earned in courses and on individual assignments.
