Course Grading Policies

Grading Criterion, Late Assignment Policy, and Expectations for Assignments

GRADING CRITERION

Discussion Boards (Total 20%)

You will be expected to respond to ten different discussion post questions in Canvas. Discussions are meant to show you completed the assigned readings and understand the material assigned. They are also meant to facilitate insightful conversation among students. Please respond thoughtfully and think critically when responding to discussions.

Mid-Semester Projects (Total 40%)

Mid-semester projects (4) will be 40% of your grade and these are meant to be portfolio pieces that you can use when interviewing for employment.

Project 1

Students will complete a public advocacy campaign outline no less than 5 pages long. The goal of this campaign will be to acquire and engage supporters through email, text messaging, and social media. Students should select three 501c4 action organizations that they could execute a public advocacy campaign for. Students will explain why they selected those three organizations. They will then select one of those three organizations that they will use for all future projects. They should identify three potential issues their chosen organization could organize around, explain and select the best issue, and develop a messaging strategy around that issue. In addition to the 5-page report, students will also create example landing pages for their campaign including sample graphics and content.

Project 2

Students will produce a targeting plan no less than 5 pages long for the issue they selected in Project 1. The report should identify the individuals they would target in their campaign and the individuals they would intentionally avoid targeting in their campaign. The plan should introduce publicly available data that explains the best strategies and platforms to use to target the individuals in the target audience. Students should also consider audiences that may not be the target for this campaign but could be targeted in the future.

Project 3

Students will produce an advertising budget and plan no less than 5 pages long for the issue they selected in Project 1. The report will project a total budget of $100,000. The report should identify the advertising platforms they would use to promote their campaign including the amount spent per platform. They should explain their reasoning behind their budgetary and targeting decisions and why alternatives were not chosen. In addition to the report, students should also create example advertisements for their campaign on the platforms they choose to advertise on.

Project 4

Students will create a follow-up engagement plan for the supporters acquired in Project 3. This plan should include a single cross-platform engagement funnel utilizing email marketing, peer-to-peer and/or opt-in text messaging, social media, and any new platforms the student chooses. Students will explain how they would introduce new topics to their supporter universe. Students should also include potential fundraising campaigns in the funnel. They should explain how to utilize the newly acquired activists to combat list attrition. In addition to the 5-page report, this project should include example emails, texts that activists will see during each step of the funnel.

Final Project (Total 40%)

Students will bring together projects 2-4 to create a final report to pitch the organization they selected in the first project. This should be a 5-10 minute verbal presentation that's supported by multimedia items including a slide deck and/or video. Students will be expected to polish the reports in projects 2-4 and reformat them into a single cohesive report. After they are done their presentation, students will be expected to critique their classmates' proposals both positively and negatively.

Expectations for Writing Assignments: Writing Style

In order to meet the academic rigor and standards of a graduate program, all students are required to use the Publication Manual of the American Psychological Association (APA) 7th Edition style in their courses. The APA 7th Edition Manual has a plethora of guidelines that includes scholarly writing, publishing principles, elements and format for your papers, writing style and grammar, bias-free language guidelines, mechanics of style, in-text citing and references, etc. For additional information on notable changes, see changes between APA 6th Edition and APA 7th Edition.

Your grade will be calculated based on the following:

| Assignments/Assessments | Points | Weight (%) |
|---|-------------|-------------|
| Course Orientation: These assignments are required; however, they not count towards the final grade. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Student Introduction • Course Evaluation | 0 | 0% |
| 10 Discussions <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Worth up to 20 points each. | 200 | 20% |
| 4 Mid-Semester Projects <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Worth up to 100 points each | 400 | 40% |
| Final Project <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Worth up to 400 points each | 400 | 40% |
| TOTAL | 1000 | 100% |

| Grade | Percentage |
|-------|------------|
| A | 92.5-100% |
| A- | 89.5-92.4% |
| B+ | 86.5-89.4% |
| B | 82.5-86.4% |
| B- | 79.5-82.4% |
| C+ | 76.5-79.4% |
| C | 72.5-76.4% |
| C- | 69.5-72.4% |
| D+ | 66.5-69.4% |
| D | 62.5-66.4% |
| D- | 59.5-62.4% |
| E | 0 – 59.4% |

The only passing grades for graduate students are A, A-, B+, B, B-, C+, C, and S. Grades of B-, C+ or C count toward a graduate degree if an equal number of credits in courses numbered 5000 or higher have been earned with grades of B+, A- and A, respectively. Grade points are not given for S and U grades; S and U grades are not used to calculate grade point averages. All letter-graded courses eligible to count toward the graduate degree, except 1000- and 2000-level courses, are used to calculate the cumulative grade-point average. Letter grades of C-, D+, D, D- or E are not considered passing at the graduate level, although the grade points associated with these letter grades are included in grade point average calculations. See the UF grading policy for more information.

LATE ASSIGNMENT POLICY

Late assignments will not be accepted unless it is a University excused absence as stated in the attendance policies. No late work will be accepted for final projects or work due in the final week of class due to the university grading deadlines. If potential issues arise concerning submitting final work, students should contact their instructors before deadlines to discuss the possibility of an Incomplete Grade Contract.

1. Late Assignment Grade Reductions
 - a. 0-24 Hours Late: 10% reduction in grade.
 - b. Over 24 Hours (24 hours and 1 minute) to 7 Calendar Days Late: 20% reduction in grade.
 - c. After the 7th Calendar Day: Work will not be accepted.
2. Late Discussions will not be accepted.

EXPECTATIONS FOR ASSIGNMENTS

Select CJC and University Policies and Guidelines

Academic Integrity Policy

UF students are bound by The Honor Pledge which states, "We, the members of the University of Florida community, pledge to hold ourselves and our peers to the highest standards of honor and integrity by abiding by the Honor Code." The Student Honor Code, Violation of the Student Honor Code, specifies a number of behaviors that are in violation of this code and the possible sanctions. Furthermore, you are obligated to report any condition that facilitates academic misconduct to the appropriate personnel. If you have any questions or concerns, please consult with the instructor or TA's in this class.

Netiquette

Casual style of communication is commonly found in the online environment and students are sometimes tempted to relax their grammar, word choice, syntax (arrangement of words to create well-formed sentences), writing mechanics (capitalization, punctuation, and spelling), and/or professionalism. Keep in mind when communicating with others to be courteous, civil, respectful, and professional. Please remember that you are adult students and professionals—your communication must be appropriate.

Online Attendance Policy

Since the course is online, you should access your course at least four times per week to ensure you do not miss pertinent postings, messages, or announcements. It is imperative that you meet course deadlines and stay active in discussion boards, group projects, etc. If you are experiencing a major illness, absences due to University duties, or other large-scale issues, contact the instructor immediately.

Students are responsible for meeting all academic objectives as defined by the instructor. In general, acceptable reasons for absences include illness, serious family emergencies, special curricular requirements, military obligation, severe weather conditions, religious holidays, and participation in official University activities. Absences from class for court-imposed legal obligations (e.g., jury duty or subpoena) must be excused. Excused absences must be consistent with university policies in the Graduate Catalog and require appropriate documentation. For additional information, see the attendance policies.

Plagiarism

Plagiarism is unacceptable; especially, in the academic communities. All academic work must be an original work of your own thought, research, or self-expression. Plagiarism includes, but is not limited to, prohibited collaboration, consultation, submission of academic work that has been purchased or obtained (see the UF Policy: Student Conduct Violation). Remember that plagiarism is not acceptable in any of your work including all discussion board posts, journal entries, wikis, and other written and oral presentation assignments. Always cite your sources!

Software Use

All faculty, staff, and students of the University are required and expected to obey the laws and legal agreements governing software use. Failure to do so can lead to monetary damages and/or criminal penalties for the individual violator. Because such violations are also against University policies and rules, disciplinary action will be taken as appropriate. We, the members of the University of Florida community, pledge to uphold ourselves and our peers to the highest standards of honesty and integrity.

Notification to Students of FERPA Rights

There are federal laws (FERPA) protecting your privacy with regards to grades earned in courses and on individual assignments.
