

RTV 4684 SECTION 17HD CLASS # 17876

ADVANCED BROADCAST NEWS PRODUCING

SPRING 2022 SYLLABUS MARK LEEPS (mleeps@wuft.org, 352-294-1504)

Basics

Prerequisite: C or better in RTV3632 Electronic News Producing & Management

Other prep: You should also have already taken JOU3101 Print/Digital Reporting. It helps to have shadowed a producer or taken an AP shift in the INC, and it helps to have taken RTV4301 (TV1 reporting).

Newsroom Shift (TV): One full day per week pre-arranged (9:30am until 6:00pm)

This is a lab-based course, no lectures or projects or quizzes, but there may be group training sessions TBA.

Normally all-day shifts producing 5pm live daily tv newscast, other possible requirements for radio or other tv producing.

Instructor's office hours: MON/WED/FRI 1-2p, Weimer 2324

Texts

There is no required text, though buying an AP Stylebook will help you in this experience and in this field...help you now and in any pro producing jobs.

Course

5pm tv newscast producers normally work one day per week, 9:30am-6:00pm, with extra time spent checking pitches or planning or filing post-show reports.

After the academic prep of completing RTV3632 (Producing) and serving as an AP for the 5pm show, this is the 3crhr course for immersive training as a line producer. If you lack that AP experience your newsroom role in this course may be more limited until we can bring you up to speed. For additional terms of line producing, this course is normally repeated only once, then any further work as 5pm tv newscast producer is usually done as a 1crhr RTV4930. Radio/Digital can also offer RTV4684...those assignments vary.

Background

The pro stations make UF an extraordinary place to gain practical experience, compared to many other J-schools. Many places create campus news for a campus audience (perhaps a weekly on a totally academic calendar), with a student/campus target audience, "broadcast" only on campus cable.

Your producing work will routinely be broadcast live to a 13+ county area.

Objective

The objective of regularly producing live tv newscasts is to grow your reliable and marketable skills as a tv newscast producer, and to generate samples for your resume reel. Every day is different content-wise, different story formats and show segments vary in their degree of difficulty to execute, and experience is key to learning how to handle the newscast and how to grow your editorial judgment.

Goals

Develop and demonstrate the following professional skills:

1. Ability to scour “the world” for news to consider for your show and your audience (networks, social media, local competitors, pro partners, feeds, press releases, neighborhood news & local events, etc.)...developing news judgment about what to include in your show for your audience and why.
2. Ability to match various treatments and formats to stories for editorial and production reasons...and creativity to sometimes adopt unusual treatments or experiment with novel ones
3. Ability to develop and manage a rundown on a pro newsroom computer system like ENPS (a pro platform used by many commercial stations) in terms of planning how the half-hour of television should look and sound minute by minute. Make sure everything is correctly formatted.
4. Ability to work on daily-deadline managing all contributors (reporters and editors) and talent (anchors and reporters fronting their material live) to make sure everyone is prepared and in place to attempt to execute your gameplan. During crunchtime and showtime, you’re the leader.
5. Ability to serve frontline in the control room where you manage the show second-to-second, including all timing issues and “navigating” to avoid trouble and to recover from it when it happens anyway. (This involves real-time communicating with the director and talent, real-time decision-making, executing “backup plans” or generating new ones on the fly, showing leadership to deliver the best you can for your audience given how your show rolls out in real life.)
6. Ability to analyze how to improve production-wise and how to pass-the-ball editorially. During critique, don’t focus on anchor talent performance, go over their readiness and focus and communication and understanding...pay attention to the details we need to correct to keep everyone (cast and crew) on the same page next time. Editorially, send a note to the producers and newsmanagers about how far we advanced certain stories and if there’s more they might consider next.

Unexpected Opportunities

Planned shows on days of classes are all that is required, however you may find extraordinary opportunities by volunteering for other shows or specials the INC may attempt during the term.

Calendar Notes

- Producer shifts begin with “Facebook Flex” shows while we train reporters, editors, cast & crew. These shows are generally 5 to 15 minutes in length (flexible), start with local/state/big news (flexible), may or may not have 2 minutes of weather (flexible), may or may not have 1-3 minutes of sports (flexible). They go through the studio and control room like a live tv broadcast but go straight to Facebook Live instead. We may be able to practice starting at 4:30pm but need to do it “for real” sometime in the 5:00pm-5:30pm window.
- Facebook Flex will be our fallback if we lack content due to COVID or other absences, but Producers may effort the half-hour live tv “First at Five” show when everyone is ready. WUFT NEWS First at Five is our traditional daily newscast on WUFT-TV, usually 28 minutes long with two internal breaks, always news AND sports AND weather (3 hits of weather, varying times depending on the segment). We must start at 5:00:00 exactly, must fill it all, and must end on time. This is the normal challenge for a producer at a commercial tv station and is much more challenging than our Facebook Flex product or our short-form products.
- The proposed schedule of shows will be posted in the newsroom.
- UF Spring 2022 classes begin: 01/05...we will probably start the shows the following Wednesday after one week of training
- UF Spring 2022 Holidays: 01/17, 03/07 through 03/11...we normally will not do shows on Spring Break or MLK Day
- UF Spring 2022 classes end: 04/20...if we’ve advanced to First at Five on Channel 5 we will normally round out the programming week with two volunteer shows on the Reading Days, but we will not have shows during Finals Week

Key Points In The Normal 5pm Producing Day

- Before your shift: awareness of the coming news of the day, reporter pitches, requests for live shots
- 9:30am morning editorial meeting & reporter assignments
- Morning NBC-FL conference call
- 2:30pm show production meeting—explaining the draft show to anchors, director, newsmanagers
- 4:00pm all local reporters should be back in copyediting or doing video editing by now
- 4:30pm we should be wrapping up most scripts to their final versions
- 4:40pm anchors should be printing scripts by now
- 4:45pm videos should be turned in (if not, you may need to soon switch to a backup plan for the lead or have an alternative for other large components in your z-block)
- 4:50pm everyone should be getting into place, talent in the studio, reporters where they need to be, and producer in the control room
- 5:00pm show starts
- 5:30pm show ends (this is why we preach 30 minutes of focus)
- 5:35pm gather in studio for show critique (producer & director lead off)
- 5:50pm write up notes on show for other producers and newsmanagers

Grading

- 100% - producing

You're graded on the skills you prove over the course of the term as a line producer. It is a holistic, all-inclusive, end-of-term assessment. Try to get better each show...in the real world you're only as good as your last show (how it looked to the real world, which is rarely as good as you planned).

Grading Policies

Requirements for class attendance and make-up exams, assignments, and other work in this course are consistent with university policies that can be found at:

<https://catalog.ufl.edu/ugrad/current/regulations/info/attendance.aspx>

and <http://catalog.ufl.edu/ugrad/current/regulations/info/grades.aspx>

Grading Scale

The grading scale is as follows:

A	95-100
A-	92-94
B+	89-91
B	86-88
B-	83-85
C+	80-82
C	77-79
C-	74-76
D+	71-73
D	60-70
D-	50-59
E	0-49

COVID Changes & Precautions

Keep in mind UF may expect masking inside buildings and perhaps distancing and limiting numbers. Masking applies to classrooms, the Weimer 2nd floor newsroom (INC) and the Weimer tv studios and control room.

This UF guidance is subject to change, please check online for updates.

In response to COVID-19, the following practices are in place to maintain your learning environment, to enhance the safety of our in-classroom interactions, and to further the health and safety of ourselves, our neighbors, and our loved ones.

- If you are not vaccinated, please get vaccinated. Vaccines are readily available at no cost and have been demonstrated to be safe and effective against the COVID-19 virus. Visit this link for details on where to get your shot, including options that do not require an appointment: <https://coronavirus.ufhealth.org/vaccinations/vaccine-availability/>. Students who receive the first dose of the vaccine somewhere off-campus and/or outside of Gainesville can still receive their second dose on campus.
- You are expected to wear approved face coverings at all times during class and within buildings even if you are vaccinated. Please continue to follow healthy habits, including best practices like frequent hand washing. Following these practices is our responsibility as Gators.
 - Sanitizing supplies are available in the classroom if you wish to wipe down your desks prior to sitting down and at the end of the class.
 - Hand sanitizing stations will be located in every classroom.
- If you're sick, stay home and self-quarantine. Please visit the UF Health Screen, Test & Protect website about next steps, retake the questionnaire and schedule your test for no sooner than 24 hours after your symptoms began. Please call your primary care provider if you are ill and need immediate care or the UF Student Health Care Center at 352-392-1161 (or email covid@shcc.ufl.edu) to be evaluated for testing and to receive further instructions about returning to campus. UF Health Screen, Test & Protect offers guidance when you are sick, have been exposed to someone who has tested positive or have tested positive yourself. Visit the UF Health Screen, Test & Protect website for more information.
 - Course materials will be provided to you with an excused absence, and you will be given a reasonable amount of time to make up work.
 - If you are withheld from campus by the Department of Health through Screen, Test & Protect you are not permitted to use any on campus facilities. Students attempting to attend campus activities when withheld from campus will be referred to the Dean of Students Office.
- Continue to regularly visit coronavirus.UFHealth.org and coronavirus.ufl.edu for up-to-date information about COVID-19 and vaccination.

Recording Lectures

A new law allows FL students to record video or audio of class lectures. However, the purposes for which these recordings may be used are strictly controlled. The only allowable purposes are (1) for personal educational use, (2) in connection with a complaint to the university, or (3) as evidence in, or in preparation for, a criminal or civil proceeding. All other purposes are prohibited. Specifically, students may not publish recorded lectures without the written consent of the instructor.

A “class lecture” is an educational presentation intended to inform or teach enrolled students about a particular subject, including any instructor-led discussions that form part of the presentation. A class lecture does not include lab sessions, student presentations, academic exercises involving solely student participation, assessments (quizzes, tests, exams), field trips, private conversations between students in the class or between a student and the faculty or lecturer during a class session.

Publication without permission of the instructor is prohibited. To “publish” means to share, transmit, circulate, distribute, or provide access to a recording, regardless of format or medium, to another person (or persons), including but not limited to another student within the same class section. Additionally, a recording, or transcript of a recording, is considered published if it is posted on or uploaded to, in whole or in part, any media platform, including but not limited to social media, book, magazine, newspaper, leaflet, or third party note/tutoring services. A student who publishes a recording without written consent may be subject to a civil cause of action instituted by a person injured by the publication and/or discipline under UF Regulation 4.040 Student Honor Code and Student Conduct Code.

Inclusion & Diversity

CJC JOU Policy:

The University of Florida's College of Journalism and Communications Department of Journalism embraces a commitment toward an intellectual community enriched and enhanced by diversity along a number of dimensions, including race, ethnicity and national origins, gender and gender identity, sexuality, class and religion. We expect each of our journalism courses to help foster an understanding of the diversity of peoples and cultures and of the significance and impact of mass communications in a global society.

Statement from the Instructor:

The craft of journalism strives to be objective. However, in practice, much of the gathering of information tends to come from subjective sources and a subset of voices that may not be representative of society as a whole. The re-telling may also be influenced by the source, editorial slants, and social sensibilities more related to the current times (the era/decade/year in which it was produced). Please contact me with feedback if you have any suggestions to improve the quality of the course materials.

The newsroom has many policies for dress and behavior, as does WUFT-TV, but in the classroom we support a diversity of thoughts, perspectives and experiences, and would like to honor your identities (including race, gender, class, sexuality, religion, ability, etc.). To help accomplish this:

- If you prefer a name and/or set of pronouns that differ from those that appear in your official records, please let me know early on. •
- If something is said in class (by anyone) that makes you feel uncomfortable, please talk to me about it confidentially afterward.
- If you feel like your performance in the course is being impacted by your experiences outside of classtime, please don't hesitate to come and talk to me or another INC news manager. We want to be a resource for you.
- Or you might prefer to talk to our interim INC Director Ryan Vasquez.
- The PATH office also has an excellent staff of academic advisors, and active connections to the Dean of Students and the U Matter We Care program.
- Another option for someone totally outside of the newsroom is Joanna Hernandez, the CJC Director of Inclusion and Diversity.

UF Honor Code

UF students are bound by “The Orange Book” which explains the code of conduct for all students. It is online at <https://sccr.dso.ufl.edu/policies/student-honor-code-student-conduct-code/> You should be familiar with all aspects: the pledge to do your own work with nothing unauthorized given or received, the system UF uses for handling academic misconduct, and your responsibility as a student to report any condition that facilitates academic misconduct.

Accommodations

Students with disabilities requesting accommodations should first register with the Disability Resource Center (352-392-8565, www.dso.ufl.edu/drc/) by providing appropriate documentation. Once registered, students will receive an accommodation letter which must be presented to the instructor when requesting accommodation. Students with disabilities should follow this procedure as early as possible in the semester.

Campus Resources

Please be aware of UF’s Health & Wellness resources for students:

U Matter, We Care: if you or a friend is in distress, please contact umatter@ufl.edu or 352-392-1575 so that a team member can reach out to the student

Counseling & Wellness Center: <http://www.counseling.ufl.edu/cwc/Default.aspx>
352-392-1575

First Responders: University Police Department 352-392-1111 or 911 for emergencies <http://www.police.ufl.edu/> & SARS (Sexual Assault Recovery Services) at the Student Health Care Center 352-392-1161

Cost Considerations

There are no extra fees for this course and no required textbook. You will complete almost all work on special equipment and computers provided by the INC and WUFT-TV. It is a working environment and those “work rules” are listed further below.

Feedback & Evaluations

All our work will be accomplished outside of Canvas, there will only be a minimal shell. Please contact me in person or by email (mleeps@wuft.org) for any question you have throughout the course. Students are expected to provide professional and respectful feedback on the quality of the instruction in this course by completing course evaluations online via GatorEvals.

CJC/DMP/INC Policies

It is your responsibility to learn and comply with all INC policies.

There are specific rules in the Dress Code but the bottom line is you will not be treated as a professional if you do not look business-like. Anyone who violates the dress code will be notified at the time of the violation and advised to comply in the future or sent home to change, if necessary, in the judgment of the newsroom staffer. Students who appear on tv or the web will get feedback about clothing, makeup and performance...in order to keep our work products on-par with industry standards.

The G020 Loading Zone Student Policy emphasizes that any access to the Weimer Service Drive is only for stopping to load/unload heavy/bulky gear and stops are limited to 10 minutes. Follow instructions closely, you are personally responsible for any tickets you get.

The CJC/DMP/INC Equipment Policy emphasizes that gear checkout is for official course or INC business only. The college/stations hold the rights to all work-product and published/broadcast material generated, and it may not be redistributed or repurposed in any form without permission of college/station officials. Don't post anything we generate to YouTube or other non-wuvt websites without checking.

The Computer Policy emphasizes that all the computers in the INC are for official station business (including select courses) only. Many are reserved for people in specific roles at certain times of day. Make sure you work in an area appropriate to your role/course, that you log-in as instructed and save & log-out everytime you walk away.

We embrace the RTDNA Code of Ethics and the similar SPJ Code of Ethics, but we also have our own Ethics Policies you should study and follow.

Other Notes

- Never leave your newsroom shift without prior approval from a NewsManager.
- All work is done for potential broadcast on WUFT-TV, WUFT-FM and publishing on WUFT.ORG and related in-house platforms but you should make no promises to the public about if or when certain stories will air.
- We never give copies of our taped material (raw, edited, or airchecks) to anyone, but can take requests from the public to post a particular story on our web site.
- To help secure our gear and help keep our workplace secure, do not let strangers into the newsroom and do not prop the doors open after normal business hours. Report any unusual activity to managers and report any suspicious activity to managers or police.
- Keep backups. The material on all of our workstations gets routinely deleted at the end of each term...and failures could happen at any time. Protect your best work and save it to your portable hard drive.
- In addition to INC NewsManagers, other station staffers may provide feedback at any time. All criticism from the pro staff is meant to be professional, not personal...learn to accept it and learn from it. You may also get feedback from special guests.
- We have outside partnerships ongoing with NBC NewsChannel Florida, CNN, and sometimes others. Don't assume material we generate can be shared or posted anywhere; always check with Mark first.
- Your swipe access to the INC that comes with registration in this class will expire after the end of the term.
