4.0 Assignments

Quizzes (40% of the final grade)

Quizzes consist of a few simple true/false, multiple choice, or short answer questions probing the content of that week's lecture and/or readings. If a quiz has been assigned for that week, you will need to have it completed by Sunday at 11:59 p.m. EDT of that week.

Discussion posts (20% of the final grade)

Assignments include weekly online reactions to readings/lectures or current events. This assignment is administrated as an online forum. You are encouraged to participate in the discussion. Discussion posts are due by Sunday at 11:59 p.m. EDT of that week.

Final Paper (40% of the final grade)

Your final paper is a (5-10 pages) case study of the recent communication efforts of a multinational organization involving home, host, and/or transnational publics/audiences in the region of the world specified in the course reading schedule. This assignment affords an opportunity to examine real-world international public relations cases and apply what you are learning in this course. The main objective is to understand how these corporations or organizations are addressing international, global, or intercultural issues in their communications efforts in specific regions of the world.

Please conduct your own research (LexisNexis, Factiva, or the United Nations Office of Partnerships, or other) to identify a multinational corporation or organization doing business/having a presence in any of the regions specified in Weeks 2-6 of the syllabus. That corporation/organization will have a home country (where it is headquartered) and will have a presence/be doing business in any of the countries located in the regions discussed in this course (host country). This corporation or organization may also have a presence in other countries across the globe, but you should concentrate ONLY on communications efforts in your selected host country. For example: you identify/select as your client, Hewlett Packard, who is headquartered in the USA (home country) and who is operating/functioning in your designated country (host country), China.

6.0 Policies

6.1 Deadlines and make-up policy

Deadlines are the lifeblood of the PR profession. Missing deadlines not only can damage a public relations professional's credibility, but also can lead to termination of a relationship with a client or to dismissal. Thus, deadlines are treated seriously in this class. All assignments, quizzes and discussions are due by 11:59 p.m. EDT on the date of the deadline, unless otherwise instructed. Any missed deadlines will attract the following penalties:

1 min. – 24 hours late – 10% of your final grade for the submission

24 hours – 7 days late – 20%;

8 – 10 days late – 30%;

11 – 14 days late – 40%;

More than 14 days late – 100%.

Any other late assignment will not be accepted and will be given a grade of zero.

A student who misses a deadline can send an email to have the activity unlocked, but please beware of the penalty associated with the missed deadline.

In general, acceptable reasons for failure to submit assignments on time include illness, serious family emergencies, special curricular requirements (e.g., judging trips, field trips, professional conferences), military obligation, severe weather conditions, religious holidays and participation in official university activities such as music performances, athletic competition or debate. Absences from class for court-imposed legal obligations (e.g., jury duty or subpoena) must be excused. Other reasons also may be approved. Requirements for class attendance and make-up exams, assignments, and other work in this course are consistent with university policies that can be found at:
