250 points: Final Project

150 points: Midterm Project

100 points: Participation/Attendance/Professionalism

Class Assignments (1,000 points)

We will have eight class assignments designed to sharpen a skill for sports reporting, including four UF games. One assignment will involve covering a press conference as a class, transcribing the audio and writing on deadline.

Class Assignment 1: Breaking news on deadline (Week 5)

Class Assignment 2: Covering the Florida men's basketball game vs. LSU (Week 6)

Class Assignment 3: Covering a mock press conference (Week 8)

Class Assignment 4: Covering the Florida men's basketball game vs. Alabama (Week 9)

Class Assignment 5: Writing a column or analysis (Week 11)

Class Assignment 6: Covering the Florida baseball game vs. FAMU (Week 13)

Class Assignment 7: FOIA requests and contract releases (Week 14)

Class Assignment 8: Covering the Florida baseball game vs. Jacksonville (Week 15)

Midterm Project (150 points)

Everyone will be required to cover at least one game on their own. You may choose from any sport and team this fall, but it must be a game that you can attend in person. Pro games will not work unless you can get credentialed. Every student will live-tweet (50 points) and write a game recap (100 points).

Final Project (250 Points)

Reported, in-depth feature or profile with multimedia element. Minimum 1,000 words. Professor will review, discuss drafts with each student at a selected scheduled time. More specific details on the assignment to come later in the semester. Project due May 1.

Participation/Professionalism (100 points)

You are expected to read, watch and complete all of the course content. Points will also be deducted at the instructor's discretion for chronic lateness, being disengaged in the class, and failure to participate in online discussions or respond to emails.

SUBMISSION GUIDELINES

- Always directly email me your submission
- When applicable, include source info (name, phone/e-mail, links) at bottom of your email or story. Failure to follow guidelines will result in a point penalty at instructor's discretion.

DEDUCTIONS

Journalism is a deadline business. This course is designed to mirror the expected behavior of a professional newsroom. They're called deadlines for a reason.

Failure to meet assignment deadlines will result in a 20-point deduction in the first 24-hour period it's late. Late assignments beyond 24 hours may not be accepted, and could be graded as a zero, unless an emergency can be documented. If an illness or a personal emergency prevents you from completing an assignment on time, advance notice and written documentation will be required. If advance notice is not possible because of a true emergency, written documentation will be required ASAP.

Fact errors will result in a deduction at instructor's discretion, depending on the error and assignment.

COURSE GUESTS

The class will include guest speakers who cover prep, college and professional sports, including sports media professionals who graduated UF's College of Journalism and Communications.

In the interest of honest and frank discussions, my lectures and comments of guest speakers are strictly off-the-record. This means that they may not be published in any format, either in a print publication or on a web site, personal blog or social media.

ACADEMIC DISHONESTY

Plagiarism is one of the biggest sins in journalism. Do your own work.

Academic dishonesty of any kind will not be tolerated in this course. Violation of the honor code includes plagiarizing material from other sources, using artificial intelligence (such as ChatGPT), fabricating material or using any work done by another person for a class assignment. Even copying photos from the internet could lead to a copyright claim in the real world. See the Department of Journalism website, as well as UF guidelines, for specific outline of honor code violations.

HONOR CODE

UF Student Honor Code: <https://sccr.dso.ufl.edu/process/student-conduct-code/>

Any violations of this code will be reported to the Dean of Students. Failure to comply with this commitment will result in disciplinary action compliant with the UF Student Honor Code Procedures. If you have any degree of uncertainty, please ask.

Violation of the honor code includes plagiarizing material from other sources or fabricating material, as well as other forms of cheating. Violations will result in a failing grade, and you will be dismissed from the journalism program and reported to the Honor Court. See the Department of Journalism website, as well as UF guidelines, for specific outline of honor code violations.

PROFESSIONAL CONDUCT

This is a workshop-style class in which we will all contribute ideas and critiques of others' work and ideas. Please use professional courtesy. Turn cell phones off. No texting (or checking your phone) in class. If you need to use your phone, please leave the room to do so. Bring laptops to class.

CLASSROOM NEEDS

Students requesting special classroom needs must first register with the Dean of Students Office, which will provide documentation to the student, who must then provide the documentation to the instructor.

DIVERSITY STATEMENT

The University of Florida's College of Journalism and Communications Department embraces a commitment toward an intellectual community enriched and enhanced by diversity along a number of dimensions, including race, ethnicity and national origins, gender and gender identity, sexuality, class and religion. We expect each of our journalism courses to help foster an understanding of the diversity of peoples and cultures and of the significance and impact of mass communications in a global society.

STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES

Students with disabilities requesting accommodations should first register with the Disability Resource Center (352-392-8565, www.dso.ufl.edu/drc) by providing appropriate documentation. Once registered, students will receive an accommodation letter that must be presented to the instructor when requesting accommodation. Students with disabilities should follow this process as early as possible in the semester. Course Evaluations Students are expected to provide feedback on the quality of instruction in this course based on a minimum of 10 criteria. These evaluations are conducted online at <https://evaluations.ufl.edu>. Evaluations are typically open during the last three weeks of the semester, but announcements will be made giving specific times when they are open. Summary results of these evaluations are available to students at the evaluations website URL above. Course Grading Students will be graded in accordance with UF policies for assigning grade points as articulated in the link that follows. <https://catalog.ufl.edu/ugrad/current/regulations/info/grades.aspx>

U MATTER, WE CARE

Your well-being is important to the University of Florida. The U Matter, We Care initiative is committed to creating a culture of care on our campus by encouraging members of our community to look out for one another and to reach out for help if a member of our community is in need. If you or a friend is in distress, please contact umatter@ufl.edu so that the U Matter, We Care Team can reach out to the student in distress. A nighttime and weekend crisis counselor is available by phone at 352-392-1575. The U Matter, We Care Team can help connect students to the many other helping resources available including, but not limited to, Victim Advocates, Housing staff, and the Counseling and Wellness Center. Please remember that asking for help is a sign of strength. In case of emergency, call 9-1-1.

THE INSTRUCTOR

Zach Abolverdi is the Gators Online Senior Writer for On3.com and Sports Reporting Adjunct Professor at the University of Florida. Orlando born but Gainesville raised, he grew up on college football during the Steve Spurrier era and started his sports journalism career in 2010 prior to Urban Meyer's final season with the Gators. Zach is a Hearst Award winner and graduated from University of Florida's College of Journalism in 2014. He spent a total of seven years at the Gainesville Sun (2010-15, 2021), along with stops at Rivals, the Atlanta Journal-Constitution and the Lake City Reporter. Zach enjoys spending time with family and his boxer dogs. SEC football, March Madness and NBA hoops provide his sports fix.
