Professor: Ajia I. Meux, PhD, MSW

Email: ajiameux@ufl.edu

Course Meetings: Asynchronous on Zoom

Office Hours: Available by appointment

Course Description

Diverse Voices is a one-credit course that assesses the vital role of diversity, equity and inclusion (DEI) in public relations. Public relations professionals play a key role in telling stories that shape the perceptions of stakeholder groups. In this course you will gain insight and direction on ways to help create and support a diverse, equitable and inclusive work environment. We will explore the ways in which emotional intelligence and cultural competency impact your ability to make decisions that reflect the core principles of DEI. Understanding the journeys of the leaders of color who have changed the face of leadership in public relations will help outline the obstacles to and benefits of DEI in the field.

Course Format

The format for this course is asynchronous – meaning you are able to complete work at your own pace.

Participation in online discussions, group work and timely assignment completion are keys to succeeding in this class. You are responsible for notifying me in advance if you are unable to complete an assignment due to illness and should be prepared to provide a note from your medical provider. For further information on attendance policy, please go here.

Required Material

There is no textbook for this course. All required readings, podcasts, and videos/movies are listed on the syllabus and will be available on Canvas. Additional readings and assignments may be added at my discretion over the course of the semester.

COURSE OBJECTIVES AND LEARNING OUTCOMES

Upon completing this course, students will:

- Use and apply the terms diversity, equity, inclusion and access correctly
- Understand the practical application of DEI principles to public relations and communications, and the role of the public relations professional in support of these principles
- Identify and analyze the challenges and opportunities in public relations from the various narratives of diverse leaders
- Understand the current climate towards DEI in the public relations sector
- Begin to develop a competency for inclusive language and communication

College of Journalism and Communications Objectives

The Accrediting Council on Education in Journalism and Mass Communications requires that by graduation all students should be able to:

- apply the principles and laws of freedom of speech and press, in a global context, and for the country in which the institution that invites ACEJMC is located;
- demonstrate an understanding of the multicultural history and role of professionals and institutions in shaping communications;
- demonstrate culturally proficient communication that empowers those traditionally disenfranchised in society, especially as grounded in race, ethnicity, gender, sexual orientation and ability, domestically and globally, across communication and media contexts;

- effectively and correctly apply basic numerical and statistical concepts;
- critically evaluate their own work and that of others for accuracy and fairness, clarity, appropriate style and grammatical correctness;
- apply tools and technologies appropriate for the communications professions in which they work

GRADING AND ASSIGNMENTS

The evaluation of coursework will be based on your performance in three major assignments, each of which constitutes a proportion of the final grade. Your grade will be calculated by the following:

Discussion Posts: 30%

Each week, a discussion question will be posted to Canvas which will cover either the readings or a contemporary event. Your response should be a critical reflection of the readings you have had for the week. You will only be graded for your contribution, but you are more than welcome to comment on and engage with others' post.

Team Case Study: 40%

Teams will work together to identify and assess the DEI initiatives and practices of two different companies. Groups will complete a SWOT analysis that will focus on the internal and external DEI practices and initiatives and prepare a presentation to the class on how companies are creating a diverse, equitable and inclusive culture, as well as the opportunities that exist to better address DEI. Companies and groups will be assigned.

Groups should present the company's DEI initiatives and conduct a SWOT analysis. Please follow the following outline:

- 1) An overview of the company
- 2) Company's DEI leadership
- 3) Company's DEI policies

- 4) At least two of the company's DEI program examples
- 5) Recent trends and/or articles in DEI related to the company
- 6) SWOT

Here's a great resource on how to conduct a SWOT analysis: <https://ctb.ku.edu/en/table-of-contents/assessment/assessing-community-needs-and-resources/swot-analysis/main>

NOTE: All elements of the SWOT should be related to DEI(JBA).

Presentation

Teams should prepare a 15-slide minimum presentation. The presentation should be recorded live or include voice overs. Be creative – show videos, images, articles or other visual depictions to enhance your presentation. Note: Your presentation should not be more than 20 minutes in length.

Team Participation

This is a group project; therefore, each team will have to meet for each member to contribute to the assignment equally. It is important that the information presented be cohesive and representative of team collaboration.

Case Study Discussion 15%

In response to teams' case study, you will prepare a critical reflection and/or important questions to consider (200+ words) and post it on the discussion board. You will be graded on how thoughtfully you participate and contribute to the discussions. NOTE: This is an individual reflection, not a team reflection!

LinkedIn Post: 15%

In week 16, you must make one LinkedIn post reflecting on what you learned this semester. The post must include a learning from one of the companies you assessed and at least one link to a relevant article. To receive full credit, it must include the hashtag #DiverseVoices and a tag of the professor, Ajia Meux, and any people being quoted or referenced, where possible.

NOTE: If, for whatever reason, you do not feel comfortable posting publicly about your experience in this class, let me know and we can make alternate arrangements.

Requirements for assignments and other work in this course follow UF policies:
<https://catalog.ufl.edu/ugrad/current/regulations/info/attendance.aspx>

Late or Missed Work:

Deadlines for each assignment will be given and students are expected to meet them. Late assignments will automatically lose half a point per day it is late. Some consideration, however, might be given (at the discretion of the instructor) if there are extenuating circumstances such as prolonged hospitalization, family death, or extended individual sickness; however, you need to notify me before the deadline is missed, not after the fact.

The grading scale for the course is:

A 92-100%
A- 90-91.99%
B+ 88-89.99%

B 82-87.99.99%
B- 80-81.99%

A Note on Recording

Students are allowed to record video or audio of class lectures. However, the purposes for which these recordings may be used are strictly controlled. The only allowable purposes are (1) for personal educational use, (2) in connection with a complaint to the university, or (3) as evidence in, or in preparation for, a criminal or civil proceeding. All other purposes are prohibited. Specifically, students may not publish recorded lectures without the written consent of the instructor. A “class lecture” is an educational presentation intended to inform or teach enrolled students about a particular subject, including any instructor-led discussions that form part of the presentation, and delivered by any instructor hired or appointed by the University, or by a guest instructor, as part of a University of Florida course. A class lecture does not include lab sessions, student presentations, clinical presentations such as patient history, academic exercises involving solely student participation, assessments (quizzes, tests, exams), field trips, private conversations between students in the class or between a student and the faculty or lecturer during a class session. Publication without permission of the instructor is prohibited. To “publish” means to share, transmit, circulate, distribute, or provide access to a recording, regardless of format or medium, to another person (or persons), including but not limited to another student within the same class section. Additionally, a recording, or transcript of a recording, is considered published if it is posted on or uploaded to, in whole or in part, any media platform, including but not limited to social media, book, magazine, newspaper, leaflet, or third party note/tutoring services. A student who publishes a recording without written consent may be subject to a civil cause of action instituted by a person injured by the publication and/or discipline under UF

Regulation 4.040 Student Honor Code and Student Conduct Code.
