Course Details

You will produce WUFT Mid-Day or WUFT's First at Five newscast. You will work a 9:30 am – 6:00 pm shift once per week, or an 8:00 am – 1:00 pm show once per week. This course is an immersive experience in the role of a line producer.

Newscast Responsibilities

- Scouring feeds to find relevant stories that will benefit our audience residing in 13 counties.
- Building and writing the newscast.
- Working with anchors, reporters and forecasters on the stories of the broadcast and delivery
- Collaborating with your editor to bring your video vision to life.
- Collaboration with your technical director and production team to ensure smooth delivery of the newscast to your audience.
- Timing the show to ensure it begins and ends at the scheduled time.

This list is not exhaustive to all the responsibilities of a line producer.

Grading

You are graded on the skills you exhibit and improvements throughout the semester. Work to get better each show you produce so that your broadcast will become free of mistakes. We will go over critiques immediately following the end of the broadcast.

Use of Artificial Intelligence

The College of Journalism and Communication will adhere to the WUFT policy on the use of Artificial Intelligence within the newsroom. Please familiarize yourself with the policy which can be found here: Artificial intelligence usage at WUFT News

UF Honor Code

University of Florida students are required to adhere to “The Orange Book.” You can find the honor code and conduct code here: Student Honor Code and Student Conduct Code | SCCR \(ufl.edu\)

The university’s honesty policy regarding cheating, plagiarism:

UF students are bound by The Honor Pledge which states, “We, the members of the University of Florida community, pledge to hold ourselves and our peers to the highest standards of honor and integrity by abiding by the Honor Code. On all work submitted for credit by students at the University of Florida, the following pledge is either required or implied: “On my honor, I have neither given nor received unauthorized aid in doing this assignment.” The Conduct Code specifies a number of behaviors that are in violation of this code and the possible sanctions. Click here to read the Conduct Code. If you have any questions or concerns, please consult with the instructor or TAs in this class.

Accommodations

Students with disabilities who experience learning barriers and would like to request academic accommodations should connect with the disability Resource Center. It is important for students to share their accommodation letter with their instructor and discuss their access needs, as early as possible in the semester. You can find how to get started here: Get Started with the DRC - Disability \(ufl.edu\)
