

JOU 3601

Photographic Journalism

Fall 2013 -- Associate Professor John Freeman

University of Florida College of Journalism and Communications

Office: 3070 Weimer Hall • phone: #392-0430 • email: jfreeman@jou.ufl.edu

Web page: <http://www.jou.ufl.edu/people/faculty/jfreeman/freeman.htm>

Class: Lecture, Tuesdays/Thursdays, 9:35 a.m. – 10:25 a.m. (labs meet in 3024 Weimer)

CATALOG DESCRIPTION: Study and practice of photography as a major component of print journalism. Emphasis on basic color picture-taking, selection and use of photographs; ethical, historical, legal and stylistic aspects.

COURSE OBJECTIVE: To help you learn how to both shoot and recognize high-quality photographs especially suited for publishing in newspapers, magazines and websites, and to introduce you to current technology used in photojournalism. There is no darkroom work.

TEXT: A Short Course in Digital Photography, Second Edition, by Barbara London and Jim Stone, Prentice Hall; ISBN: 0205066429.

GRADING: There are 1900 points for the course (see below). Grades for photographs submitted will be based on both content and technique. Content is always king. CONTENT: Did you satisfy requirements? Do you have choices? The contact sheet / index print is part of your grade, not just the one or two main photographs you submit. Was your work shot following suggestions? TECHNIQUE: Were the photos properly exposed? Did you follow class procedures with Adobe Photoshop and when printing?

GRADING SCALE

A = 93 - 100; A- = 90 - 92

B+ = 87 - 89; B = 83 - 86

B - = 80 - 82

C+ = 77 - 79; C = 73 - 76

C - = 70 - 72

D+ = 67 - 69; D = 63 - 66

D - = 60 - 62

E = 59 and below

ASSIGNMENTS / TESTS / POINTS

Announced written tests, 3 @ 200 points (600)

Photoshop weekly lab projects (8 x 100) (800)

Final Project, Picture Story - Soundslides (300)

Participation / Effort / Attendance (100)

Pop Quiz (50) and FP Pitch to Class (50) (100)

Your total points divided by 19 = your course grade

EXTRA CREDIT: published "enterprise" = 20 points each

SUPPLIES: In addition to the book, you supply the SD card if using a UF camera. Clear-quality digital .mp3 voice files are required for the final project. You may need a recorder.

CAMERAS: Canon Digital T3i Rebels with an 18-135mm zoom lens will be furnished. If using our equipment, you are responsible for ANY repairs and for REPLACING anything that is lost or broken. The total value is about $800. You may use your own digital camera only if you can manually control exposure (f/stops and shutter speeds). Flash units and other lenses are not required. You can use autofocus this semester, but exposure controls must be done manually.

POLICIES:

- Attendance: You are required to attend all lectures and labs. If you miss, it is your full responsibility to obtain notes, handouts, etc., from someone else in class. Do not miss the tests. Please do not text in class. It's distracting and rude when someone is talking (me!)
- Office hours: I should be available during office hours, T and TH, 10:30 – 11:25 a.m. If I'm in other times, I can usually talk with you. Email is often easier: jfreeman@jou.ufl.edu
- Safety: On the computer, flex your wrists and shoulders from time to time. If your neck, shoulders or wrists start to hurt, take a break. Limit steady work time to 30 minutes.
- Submitting assignments: Turn in the required color print(s) that best satisfy each assignment and a contact sheet of your "Top 20" images. Printed caption information is required for all photos. With most assignments, the "Top 20" contact sheet is part of the grade – not just your submitted photographs with captions. You should have alternative choices.
- Late work and other penalties: Deadlines are essential to journalism. Prints turned in following class lose 10 points that day and 10 points every calendar day thereafter. Assignments submitted without catchlines, borders or credit lines: -5 points each. Typos or spelling errors, -5. Name/fact errors: - 50 !! I like to operate on a no-excuses basis – be a professional.
- Optional Resubmission: Following the seven basic assignments, you may re-shoot and resubmit any one assignment, even a zero. If the work is better, the higher grade is substituted for the original. (Grades are not always higher, but you won't get a lower one.) The optional resubmission is due on the last day of class. No resubmission?—no rounding up of course grade.
- Outside help: Student assistants or former students are sometimes around to help, but YOU are still responsible for what YOU submit as YOUR assignment.
- No drinks and food in class: Sorry, it is university policy that drinks and food are NOT ALLOWED in classes or labs. This is especially enforced in all computer labs.
- Academic honesty: All work must be your own. Cheating is absolutely not tolerated. It is also your responsibility to obtain correct IDs of people in your photos, and true information. Photos must be shot "new" this semester. You must compose the shots, determine exposure settings, push the shutter button and process Photoshop on your own. Same for the final project.
- Special needs: "Students requesting classroom accommodation must first register with the Dean of Students Office. The Dean of Students will provide documentation to the student who must then provide this documentation to the instructor when requesting accommodation."

ABOUT YOUR INSTRUCTOR: (Because this is a photo class, here's what he looks like! Sorta.) Associate Professor John Freeman teaches this class from a professional viewpoint, acting as a newspaper picture editor. He joined the UF faculty in 1991 after working as a Wichita Eagle staff photographer for six years, and photojournalism instructor at Wichita State University for 10 years. He has a bachelor's degree in journalism from the University of Missouri and a master's in communications from Wichita State University. In summer 2002, he shot for six weeks at The Record in Bergen County, N.J., on a fellowship funded by the American Society of Newspaper Editors. In 1996, he was awarded a Faculty Fellowship for eight weeks of study at National Geographic magazine in Washington, D.C. During summer 1995, Mr. Freeman shot for The Los Angeles Times in Orange Co., Calif. He has a sarcastic sense of humor but wants you to benefit greatly from his courses. He dislikes people talking in class when he's talking and he dislikes people walking in late. You should call him Mr. Freeman or Professor Freeman, but not "Doctor Freeman" (he has only a master's). Don't call him "John" unless you're over 40.
