RTV 6508: AUDIENCE ANALYSIS

Fall 2013
Meets: Fri. 6th-8th periods (12:50-3:50), Weimer 1074
Instructor: A.J. Coffey, Ph.D.
Office: 2042 Weimer
Phone: 392.6522
Email: acoffey@jou.ufl.edu
Office Hours: M/W 10:45-12:45, or by appt.

Catalog Description: Methods of audience analysis. Survey research, sampling, and program content analysis. Analysis of secondary audience data.

Objectives:
1) To understand the concept of audience from both practical and theoretical perspectives.
2) To understand, interpret, and practice both qualitative and quantitative audience research methods
3) To understand and be able to compare and contrast the mass audience and niche audience business models, and how each is used by media programmers and advertisers
4) To understand the role technology plays in audience development
5) To understand the dual product market of media and how this affects audience formation
6) To be able to interpret secondary data (e.g. ratings, shares, industry reports) and to apply this information effectively and strategically
7) To become familiar with secondary analysis tools such as Arbitron’s TAPSCAN and other audience and industry-based resources
8) To be able to think creatively and strategically in order to successfully approach and solve audience-related challenges

Required Texts:
Course Pack: RTV 6508 from BookIT (corner of University & 13th by Holiday Inn).
Additional readings as announced.

Recommended Texts:
Wimmer, R. & Dominick, J., Mass Communication Research, 7th ed. or later.

Assignments and Evaluation
Assignments*  40%
Comment Sheets  20%
Final Project/Paper  30%
Final Presentation  5%
Participation  5%

*Breakdown of “Assignments” portion is as follows:
40% Survey instrument
30% Focus group protocol
30% Ratings assignment

Assignments will be distributed at least one week in advance of their announced due date (syllabus dates are subject to change). The participation grade includes discussion and other informed contributions to classroom learning that are indicative of class preparation. This includes your submitted comment sheets to your peers on the assigned readings. Assignments are due on the date stated on the syllabus. Late assignments may be accepted within 24 hours (of the class period time), with a 10% penalty. Assignments turned in after this 24-hour period will not be accepted. We will also be using Turnitin for most assignment submissions (through our Sakai site), and will discuss how to do so in class. The same deadline above also applies to the Turnitin submission. In addition to uploading your assignment, however, please also turn in the hard copy in class for grading purposes.

Comment Sheets: Each of you will be responsible for two weeks’ worth of comments to be submitted to class peers via email by Thursday at 7:00 pm. For your assigned date, please type your insights, thoughts, questions, arguments, and/or comments on the assigned readings for the next day (3-page minimum, double-spaced). Email it to each of us in Sakai so that we can read it in preparation for class discussion the next day. A sign-up sheet will be circulated for these dates.

Academic Honesty
UF students are bound by The Honor Pledge which states, “We, the members of the University of Florida community, pledge to hold ourselves and our peers to the highest standards of honor and integrity by abiding by the Honor Code. On all work submitted for credit by students at the University of Florida, the following pledge is either required or implied: “On my honor, I have neither given nor received unauthorized aid in doing this assignment.” Furthermore, you are obligated to report any condition that facilitates academic misconduct to appropriate personnel. If you have any questions or concerns, please consult with the instructor.

Please review the honor pledge you signed, and the information you received on academic honesty and plagiarism, at your College of Journalism and Communications’ graduate student orientation. Additional copies, in multiple languages, are available from Jody Hedge in the CJC Graduate Division.

Familiarize yourself with the University of Florida Student Honor Code at http://www.dso.ufl.edu/sccr/process/student-conduct-honor-code/ as well as possible violations and sanctions. UF’s Academic Honesty Guidelines and Standards of Ethical Conduct (http://www.dso.ufl.edu/studentguide/studentrights.php#ethicalconduct) can also be found on the Student Conduct and Conflict Resolution portion of the Dean of Students’ web site (http://www.dso.ufl.edu/sccr). You should not be at UF or plan a career in this field unless you are prepared to do your own original work. If I discover that you have been academically dishonest in this class in any way, you will be penalized, up to and including expulsion from the University.

You are responsible for knowing the definition of plagiarism and various kinds of academic dishonesty. Ignorance, i.e. “I didn’t realize that was plagiarism” is not an acceptable response, and will not excuse you from academic dishonesty violations, if discovered. While you are responsible for reading and understanding UF’s policy in its entirety, examples of academic dishonesty include:

- Using phrases or quotes from another source without proper attribution or quotation marks
  - For purposes of this class, five or more words (verbatim) from a source without proper attribution or quotation marks will be considered plagiarism.
  - Paraphrasing without proper attribution
- “Forgetting” to source material you use (same as above, intentional or not)
- Passing off others’ ideas as your own
- Turning in the same assignment or paper for two courses, i.e. “dual submission.”
- Stealing and/or copying other students’ work, whether on a test or assignment
- Bribery
- Fabrication of material

If you have any questions about plagiarism, or how to properly cite or attribute sources, please ask. I am always happy to show you how to correctly do this in your scholarly work.

Attendance Policy
Graduate-level seminars tend to be interactive, so much of what you will learn occurs during classroom discussion, debate, and exchange. Your absence takes away from your peers’ seminar experience. You will be graded on your level of participation and contributions to class discussion, and attendance is part of this. University policy on attendance can be found at https://catalog.ufl.edu/ugrad/current/regulations/info/attendance.asp.

Support Services

Academic Help: Additional services are available at:
The Teaching Center
The Reading and Writing Center
SW Broward Hall, 392-2010
http://teachingcenter.ufl.edu

Disability Resources: If you have a disability that you believe will affect your performance in this class and/or need special accommodations, please see me. Additional information and services are available at:
UF Disability Resource Center, 392-8565
http://www.dso.ufl.edu/drc/

(Students requesting classroom accommodation must first register with the Dean of Students Office. The Dean of Students Office will provide documentation to the student who must then provide this documentation to the Instructor when requesting accommodation.)

As alluded to earlier, “life happens.” Often, things that happen outside of the classroom can affect your work inside the classroom, academically or otherwise. UF has wonderful and confidential counseling services to assist you, should this happen. They handle just about every issue and subject imaginable, so don’t be afraid to phone or walk over to receive this wonderful (and free) assistance. Contact info:

Course Evaluation
Students are expected to provide feedback on the quality of instruction in this course based on 10 criteria. These evaluations are conducted online at https://evaluations.ufl.edu. Evaluations are typically open during the last two or three weeks of the semester, but students will be given specific times when they are open. Summary results of these assessments are available to students at https://evaluations.ufl.edu/results.
Course Schedule
