Course Overview
This course introduces students to the history of television and the medium’s effects on American society. Students will learn about the invention of television; milestones in the history of television; media effects theories; the political, social, cognitive, affective, and behavioral effects of television content; and new television technologies.

Student Learning Outcomes
- Identify, describe, or apply concepts and theories in the use and presentation of TV content
- Identify, describe, or apply theoretical principals to real-world concepts in the television industry
- Identify, describe, or apply the tools and concepts appropriate for the telecommunication professions
- Identify historical antecedents of television, and how they have shaped the media landscape
- Recognize impact of television upon audiences from sociological and marketing standpoints
- Make connections between the television industry and other media industries/new media technologies

Textbook

There may be additional required readings posted to E-Learning in Sakai. See below for details about accessing E-Learning in Sakai site.

E-Learning in Sakai
This class has a website available through e-Learning in Sakai. To access the site, go to https://lss.at.ufl.edu/, select “e-Learning in Sakai,” and log in using your Gatorlink ID. Select the tab labeled “RTV 3405: 0884. Fall 2014.”

PowerPoint slides from the lectures will be posted to Sakai at the end of each week (Usually Friday morning) and will only cover the topics that I have lectured on so far. In other words, I will not post or distribute slides in advance of lectures, so please do not ask me to do so. PowerPoint presentations are a tool to enhance learning and should not be used as a substitute for attending lectures and reading course materials.

You should check Sakai at least twice per week for extra credit opportunities as well as to obtain additional required readings. If you have problems with Sakai or any computer problems, please contact the UF Helpdesk by email (helpdesk@ufl.edu) or by phone (352-392-HELP (4357)).

Course Policies

Coming late/Leaving early- Please be on time. Class will start promptly at 5:10 p.m. If you must come in late, please do so as quietly as possible. If you must leave early, again, please do so as quietly as possible and without disturbing those around you.

Electronic devices- Laptops and tablets may be used in class to take notes and to participate in interactive activities. Cell phones are prohibited. Those in violation of this policy will be asked to leave.

Talking in class- Please do not have conversations with others around you during lecture. If you have a question or need clarification, please raise your hand and ask me. Save other discussions for when class is over.

Grades and the 24/7 Rule- When I post any grades, I will send an email to the class via the listserv. Please wait 24 hours after a grade is posted before contacting me if it is missing or if you believe it is incorrect in case there is an error. Following this, you have one week (7 days) to request AND complete a review of an exam or to request credit that has not been posted. ALL grades are final after one week. This includes any extra credit points. Any requests received after one week will be disregarded.

Student Evaluation
Student progress in this course is evaluated through three multiple choice-based exams for a total of 300 points. Please note that there are no other assignments in the class. I will not make exceptions for any individuals. Extra credit may be offered at my discretion. Each extra credit assignment will earn you 1 extra credit point on top of your final grade point average. For instance, if you have earned a 70, 80, and a 90 on all three tests, your test average is an 80. If you have completed 3 extra credit assignments, then your final grade will be an 83. Do not ask for extra credit and please pay attention to announcements regarding any extra credit opportunities.

Exams
There will be three exams in this class, each worth 100 points. NO MAKE-UP EXAMS. The dates of the exams are:

Exam 1: September 23rd
Exam 2: October 30th
Exam 3: December 4th
Tips for Performing Well
- Attend class
- Read all weekly assigned materials before each class
- Closely read the Mittell book
- Pay attention to all black bolded words in the Mittell book
- Re-write notes/create flash cards
- Immediately start filling out and answering the study guide upon its release
- Treat the study guide as a GUIDE, as it is there to inform you of what topics/types of questions will be on the exam
- Understand that the study guide is not necessarily indicative of all the possible questions that will be on the exam

Grading Scale
I will be assigning grades according to the following scale:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Grade</th>
<th>Minimum Score</th>
<th>Maximum Score</th>

Please note that there is NO ROUNDELING of grades.

Academic Honesty
Students in this course are expected to uphold the UF Honor Code:

> “On my honor, I have neither given nor received unauthorized aid in taking this exam.”

If you are caught cheating or helping someone else cheat, you will be subject to sanctions according to the procedures of Student Conduct and Conflict Resolution (SCCR): http://www.dso.ufl.edu/sccr/procedures/honorcode.php. If you suspect another student of cheating, please let me know, or call the Cheating Hotline (352-392-6999).

Accommodations for Students with Disabilities
Students requesting classroom accommodation must first register with the Dean of Students Office. The Dean of Students Office will provide documentation to you. You will then provide that documentation to me when requesting accommodation.

Online Evaluation
Students are expected to provide feedback on the quality of instruction in this course based on 10 criteria. These evaluations are conducted online at https://evaluations.ufl.edu. Evaluations are typically open during the last two or three weeks of the semester, but students will be given specific times when they are open. Summary results of these assessments are available to students at https://evaluations.ufl.edu/results.
Additional Information:
Information on current UF grading policies may be found here: https://catalog.ufl.edu/ugrad/current/regulations/info/grades.aspx. Additionally, requirements for class attendance and make-up exams, assignments and other work in this course are consistent with university policies that can be found in the online catalog at: https://catalog.ufl.edu/ugrad/current/regulations/info/attendance.aspx.

Finally, I reserve the right to make necessary changes to the syllabus as I deem fit.
