Telecommunications Law and Regulation

Welcome to RTV 4700! This course provides an introduction the laws and policies affecting the past, present, and future of various forms of communication that use technology to exchange information. Digital media are posing pressing questions for legislatures and regulators. This class examines both the modern and historic policies related to telecommunications with an emphasis on the laws and policies of the United States. Students will examine issues relevant to their possible careers as professional communicators and as individuals who use technology to communication.

Course Objectives

This course covers a blend of technological, social, economic and legal issues in the creation of public telecommunication policy. The goals of this class are as follows:

- That students demonstrate an understanding of relevant laws and regulations affecting telecommunication, as well as the process for the creation and challenging of these laws.
- That students demonstrate a basic understanding of basic economics as related to telecommunication.
- That students understand basic telecommunications technology and how it affects policy.
- That students demonstrate an understanding of U.S. constitutional principles relevant to telecommunication.
- That students demonstrate an understanding of the power of regulatory agencies and judicial bodies as they relate to telecommunications policy.
- That students recognize current issues in telecommunication policy and the effects on the use, access, and creation of new communications technology.

Assignments and Grading

The final grade for this class is calculated based upon three (3) exams, three (3) briefs, and class participation. The weights of each category are as follows:

EXAMS (3)	65 %
BRIEFS (3)	25%
CLASS PARTICIPATION	10%

Class Participation will be determined using in class quizzes based on the readings, as well as actual participation in class discussion (answering questions), an other in-class activities that will occur throughout the semester. Please come to class having read the assignments and to ask any questions that you may have about

Other Important Information

Classroom Behavior and Course Policies

Students are expected to arrive on time, turn cell phones off, silence other electronic devices, and stay for the duration of the class period. Laptops are permitted but should be used for note-taking and in-class assignment purposes. All grades are final after one week. No exceptions. If a student wishes to challenge a grade, they must contact me 48hours after receiving their grade. In an email, the student should provide a detailed description of the substantive issue with their grade. When you email me, please put “RTV 4700” followed by the subject of your email IN THE SUBJECT LINE. In addition, please include your full name and UFID number at the end of the email.

Academic Honesty

Students are required to be honest in all of their university class work. Faculty members have a duty to promote ethical behavior and avoid practices and environments that foster cheating. I encourage you to bring incidents of dishonesty to my attention.

The Honor Code: We, the members of the University of Florida community, pledge to hold ourselves and our peers to the highest standards of honesty and integrity by abiding by the Honor Code.

On all work submitted for credit by students at the University of Florida, the following pledge is either required or implied:

"On my honor, I have neither given nor received unauthorized aid in doing this assignment."

Cheating and other academic dishonesty issues will result in an automatic E for the course.

Absences in General

Students should make every effort to attend each class as scheduled. If a student misses class, they may not make up any quiz or other in-class activity that they missed for credit. The student should contact a classmate for any substantive information they may have missed while away from class. If a student misses an exam, without proper notification to the instructor, he/she will not be given an alternative time to take the exam.

Religious Holidays

The university calendar does not include observance of any religious holidays. The Florida Board of Governors and state law govern university policy regarding observance of religious holidays. Students shall be excused from class or other scheduled academic activity to observe a religious holy day of their faith with prior notification to the instructor. Students shall be permitted a reasonable amount of time to make up the material or activities covered in their absence. Students shall not be penalized due to absence from class or other scheduled academic activity because of religious observances.

Student Illness

Students who are absent from classes or examinations because of illness should contact the instructor. The Student Health Care Center \(SHCC\) can provide a medical excuse note only if their providers are involved in the medical care of a student who must be absent from class for three or more days for medical reasons. A student who has a medical reason that results in fewer than three days of absence from class should talk with his/her professor rather than ask for an excuse note from the SHCC.

Accommodation for Students with Disabilities

Students requesting classroom accommodation must first register with the Dean of Students Office. The Dean of Students Office will provide documentation to the student who must then provide this documentation to the Instructor when requesting accommodation.

Course Evaluations

Students are expected to provide feedback on the quality of instruction in this course based on 10 criteria. These evaluations are conducted online at <https://evaluations.ufl.edu>. Evaluations are typically open during the last two or three weeks of the semester, but students will be given specific times when they are open. Summary results of these assessments are available to students at <https://evaluations.ufl.edu/results>.

Looking forward to a fun and interesting semester!
