PUR 6403 Crisis and Risk Management focuses on practical applications of theory and research to identify and strategically manage issues and operational risks that can materially affect the continuity of global organizations. Emphasis is placed on preparing managers for ethical and effective risk and crisis communication, as well as the formulation of strategic crisis communication plans.

Class information: PUR 6403 §1219 meets 8th-10th periods (3-6 p.m.) on Thursdays in Weimer 3020.

Course goals: The goal of PUR 6403 is for students to understand and appreciate how issues impact organizational continuity, how issues and operational risks are strategically managed and crises averted, and the importance of ethical, effective risk and crisis communication.

Lecturer: Dr. Linda M. Perry • Imperry@ufl.edu • 273-1789 in 3059 Weimer Hall and 273-0749 in 122 Bryant Space Science Center
Office hours: 11 a.m.-1 p.m. M,W,F in Bryant and by appointment. Office hours in Weimer TBA.

Online resources: You will have several assignments requiring access to academic journals and other resources. The UF Libraries provides online access.

Class expectations: The instructor is committed to helping you (1) improve your communication and critical thinking skills and (2) integrate and apply the theory and principles learned in this course. To that end, you can expect constructive feedback on assignments and opportunities to apply that feedback on subsequent assignments. You can also expect opportunities for collaborative work with colleagues along with guidance from your instructor.

Your instructor expects collegial and regular participation, both in class and using proper netiquette, on-time submission of assignments and honest effort. Requirements for make-up assignments and other work are consistent with UF policies:

Assignments:

An important part of graduate work is meeting deadlines. Therefore, late work is penalized 10% of the available points for that assignment per day unless you have a documented excuse.

Two of the assignments (assignments 2 and 3) have a rewrite option. You can earn up to half the points you missed on the first version by carefully applying the instructor’s feedback.

You will submit assignments electronically in Microsoft Word via Canvas by 11:55 p.m. on the due date, unless otherwise specified. Rewrites, when available, must be submitted within one week after the graded assignment is returned to you, unless otherwise specified. Late rewrites will not be accepted. You are responsible for checking Canvas for returned assignments as well as for assuring that submitted assignments have uploaded successfully.

Academic Honesty:

Academic honesty is expected in this course, just as high ethical standards are required professionally. There will be zero-tolerance for anything less. That includes not giving, accepting or taking unauthorized aid; plagiarizing websites or others’ or your own previous work; or doubling on assignments without the written permission of all involved professors and instructors. Violations will be pursued according to university guidelines. You also must adhere to copyright law requirements. See page 4 of this syllabus for more on academic honesty.

Academic Honesty

In 1995 the UF student body enacted an honor code and voluntarily committed itself to the highest standards of honesty and integrity. When students enroll at the university, they commit themselves to the standard drafted and enacted by students.

The Honor Pledge: We, the members of the University of Florida community, pledge to hold ourselves and our peers to the highest standards of honesty and integrity.

On all work submitted for credit by students at the university, the following pledge is either required or implied: "On my honor, I have neither given nor received unauthorized aid in doing this assignment."

Students should report any condition that facilitates dishonesty to the instructor, department chair, college dean, Student Honor Council, or Student Conduct and Conflict Resolution in the Dean of Students Office.

It is assumed all work will be completed independently unless the assignment is defined as a group project, in writing by the instructor. This policy will be vigorously upheld in this course.

Course Evaluation

You are expected to provide feedback on the quality of instruction in this course based on 10 criteria. These evaluations are conducted online at <https://evaluations.ufl.edu>. Evaluations are typically open during the last two or three weeks of the semester, but students will be given specific times when they are open. Summary results of these assessments will be available at <https://evaluations.ufl.edu/results>.

Software Use

All faculty, staff and students of the university are required and expected to obey the laws and legal agreements governing software use. Failure to do so can lead to monetary damages and/or criminal penalties for the individual violator. Because such violations are also against university policies and rules, disciplinary action will be taken as appropriate.

Special Needs:

Students requesting accessibility accommodation must first register with the Dean of Students Office, which will provide documentation for the accommodation needed. It is the student's responsibility to assure the documentation is delivered to the instructor. The Disability Resource Center (DRC) coordinates the needed accommodations of students with disabilities. This includes registering disabilities, accessing special adaptive computer equipment, providing interpretation services and mediating faculty-student disability related issues. The DRC is located at 0001 Reid Hall, 352-392-8565, www.dso.ufl.edu/drc/.

Campus Helping Resources

Students experiencing crises or personal problems that interfere with their general well-being are encouraged to utilize the university's counseling resources. The Counseling & Wellness Center provides confidential counseling services at no cost for currently enrolled students. Resources are available on campus for students having personal problems, lacking clear career or academic goals, or experiencing other problems that may interfere with their academic performance.
