Undergraduate Transfer Requirements

The College of Journalism and Communications at the University of Florida is a limited admissions college. All transfer applicants will be considered on a space-available basis.

“An AA graduate from a Florida public postsecondary institution shall receive priority for admission to a state university over out-of-state transfer students.” – Florida Board of Governors articulation agreement

The following courses are required for transfer students to be considered for admission:

- ENC1102 – Argument and Persuasion
- AMH2020 - American History since 1877
- POS2041 - American Federal Government*
- STA2023 – Introduction to Statistics I
- ECO2013 – Principles of Macroeconomics

*Attn: Advertising & Public Relations Majors: PSY2012 General Psychology is accepted in lieu of POS2041

Academic Standards

A grade point average of 2.5 (on all work attempted) and the AA degree from a state/community college in Florida are required for transfer admission. Out-of-state transfer students must complete 60 hours of acceptable credit and the university’s general education requirements.

Suggested courses for prospective transfer students, in addition to the required courses*

*You do not have to take these courses in order to be considered for admission as a transfer student. However, completing some of these courses will make it easier for you to take more electives in your major and in our college if/when you are admitted to UF.

FOR ADVERTISING MAJORS:
- MMC2100 Writing for Mass Communications (grade of “C” or better required)
- SPC2608 Introduction to Public Speaking (grade of “C” or better required)
- Foreign Language: Our college requires two semesters of college-level foreign language. It must be the same language; grade of “C” or better required.
- POS2112 State/Local Government OR INR2001 International Relations OR CPO2001 Comparative Politics
- Principles of Marketing (MAR3023 at UF)
- English elective: In addition to ENC1101 and ENC1102, our college requires Advertising majors to complete a 3rd English course, ENC3254 Professional Writing for Mass Communications. We will substitute this requirement for another course taught by the English department at your institution (grade of “C” or better required). Course prefixes include AML (American Lit.), CRW (Creative Writing), ENC (English comp.), ENG (English), LIT (Literature).

FOR JOURNALISM MAJORS:
- SPC2608 Introduction to Public Speaking (grade of “C” or better required)
- Foreign Language: Our college requires two semesters of college-level foreign language. It must be the same language; grade of “C” or better required.
- POS2112 State/Local Government OR INR2001 International Relations OR CPO2001 Comparative Politics
- English elective: In addition to ENC1101 and ENC1102, our college requires Journalism majors to complete a 3rd English elective. This may be anything taught by the English department at your institution (grade of “C” or better required). Course prefixes include AML (American Lit.), CRW (Creative Writing), ENC (English comp.), ENG (English), LIT (Literature).

Note: Admitted students are required to take JOU3109C- Multimedia Writing at UF. MMC2100 taken at the state/community college will not be accepted in lieu of JOU3109C.
