

APPLICATION INFORMATION
2020-2021 KNIGHT TALKS PROJECT TEAMDEADLINE: OCTOBER 1ST, 2020 AT 5PM SUBMISSION EMAIL: BALL.S@UFL.EDU, 1060 WEIMER HALL

Submission of this application places you in consideration the Knight Talks immersion opportunity, offered through the Knight Division in the College of Journalism and Communications. Please read all items thoroughly, as incomplete or ineligible applications will not be reviewed.

Knight Talks is a show that will be produced, directed, hosted, and edited by students under the guidance of the Knight Division and its partners. The show's aim is to produce content that exposes students to real world career advice, options, diversity and professional development, by interviewing leaders in various communications industries. The footage will be utilized in multiple formats within the college. The archive of full episodes will be available for all CJC students, alumni, faculty, and staff to view. We are counting on students to make the content fresh, exciting, and meaningful.

ELIGIBILITY

- Have a College of Journalism and Communications major declared as primary major (Undergraduate and Graduate students may apply)
- 2.5 minimum grade point average (GPA) and in good standing with the university
